BLUM'S POLICY OUTLINE

FRENCH LEADER'S PROMISES

BACKS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, May 10.
M. Leon Blum, the Socialist leader and probably the next Prime Minister of France, in his speech to the Socialist Congress tonight, affirmed his intention of standing by the League of Nations and the ideals represented by that institution.

He said he was opposed to devaluation and promised to initiate a vast, methodical scheme of national public works.—Reuter.

Paris, May 10.
A speech which will have an important bearing on the Government's future policy was delivered by M. Leon Blum to the Socialist Congress tonight.

There was much damage to be repaired and many wounds to be dressed, he said, but his object was to re-establish confidence in Europe, give back to the League material and moral cohesion, and recreate international solidarity, ideas of mutual assistance and disarmament.

The financial problems were important but less grave than those of war, peace, unemployment and low wages. M. Blum added that he had been urged to take power immediately, but declined.—Reuter.

POLICY OUTLINED

Paris, May 10.
M. Leon Blum, who will probably be the next Prime Minister of France, has outlined his policy.

He plans a vast, methodical scheme of national public works, healthy finance and stable budget.

Regarding the future of the franc, M. Blum said that speculators for a long time past had been selling short awaiting the day they themselves had fixed for devaluation. To that he was "resolutely opposed," he said.

When he announced these plans to the Socialist Congress tonight he was greeted with a thunderous ovation, which was repeated when he affirmed his intention of securing victory and liberty over Fascism.

"Not only the fate of our party is at stake, but the fate of the Republic," M. Blum warned.—Reuter.

HONGKONG TRIP FOR EVIDENCE

A WOMAN'S claim for damages against the Australian Oriental Line, Ltd., has been postponed to allow evidence to be taken on commission in China as to whether the doctrine of "common employment" rules in Hongkong.

Annie Olivia Henderson, who was a musician on the Taiping, alleges that she was returning to the ship, while it was anchored in Hongkong Harbour in 1933, and that while attempting to board the gangway, she fell into the water.

As a result of the immersion, she claims that she suffered great pain of body and mind, and had been and was still unable to attend to her business and profession of a musician.

The Australian Oriental Line, Ltd., deny all Miss Henderson's allegations, and, as an additional plea, set out that the doctrine of "common employment" in Hongkong bars Miss Henderson from proceeding.

Briefly, the doctrine of "common employment" sets out that an employer is not liable for the negligent act of an employee resulting in an injury to a fellow-employee.

Miss Henderson, who does not admit that the doctrine of common employment is in force in Hongkong, also denies that the doctrine applies in her case.

FROM CAPETOWN

MAPS ROUTE FOR TRIP

Capetown, May 10.

Mrs. Amy Mollison, who has just broken the record for the flight from London to the Cape, has started on her return journey, seeking a new time for the homeward hop.

She started at 10.19 p.m. She will fly along the East Coast route and expects to reach her destination on Wednesday at 11 p.m. She would thus clip hours from the record set up by Tommy Rose, the R.A.F. officer.

Mrs. Mollison had her plans completed yesterday and announced last night that she intended hopping off this evening.

Her route will carry her close to the theatre of war in Ethiopia. Her first stopping place will be Birkenhead, and thereafter she intends fueling and resting at Nairobi, in Kenya Colony, Cairo and Malta. Then she will attempt one long, last leg to London.—Reuter and Reuter Special.

H.K. PLANS FOR CORONATION

WEEK'S FESTIVITIES PROBABLE

Tentative plans for Hongkong's celebration of the Coronation of King Edward VIII of England indicating that this event will be marked with the most lavish display of loyalty in the history of this Colony.

Although the date for His Majesty's Coronation is not yet settled, Hongkong is already preparing for the occasion, and a week of festivities is indicated, more detailed account of proposals and preparations appears on Page 7.

FIGHTING

SUCCESSFUL CURE OF ANIMALS

New York, May 10.

Several types of malignant cancer growth in animals can be destroyed by injections of a typhoid bacillus filtrate, Dr. Mendel Jacoby of Beth-El Hospital reported recently in the American Journal of Cancer.

Although this method of curing cancer still is in the animal experimentation stage, it is reported that it had been used on one hopeless case of human cancer when the patient was moribund. An autopsy revealed that the tumour had been virtually destroyed.

Dr. Jacoby emphasized, however, that much further research must be done before it will be known whether the method can be used beneficially in the treatment of human cancer.

The report's conclusions were based on Dr. Jacoby's experiments with 120 animals and three types of tumour, each chosen for its "high" growth energy and degree of malignancy. Seventy animals were treated with the filtrate. Fifty were left untreated for purposes of control.

All the untreated animals died of cancer in about three weeks. Dr. Jacoby reported. In the 70 injected with typhoid bacillus the tumour began breaking up within a few hours. Eventually all traces of cancer disappeared. In 80 per cent. of the cases only one treatment—one local and one general injection—was necessary, the report said.

To be effective an injection first must be made in the tumour itself, followed by a general injection through the vein of the abdominal wall about a day later. The local injection must precede the general, the report said, and neither has been found effective without the other.—United Press.

CONTINUING SANCTIONS?

ANTICIPATED

ITALY ALREADY FORMING ETHIOPIAN NATIVE ARMY

Geneva, May 10.

It is generally anticipated that the Ethiopian dispute and the Locarno question will both be adjourned until the middle of June.

Such a decision would imply refusal by the League of Nations to recognise Italy's claim to the rights of the sovereign state in Ethiopia and would involve the continuation of sanctions.—Reuter.

Recruiting Ethiopians

Addis Ababa, May 10.

Italian recruiting of Ethiopian tribesmen for a new native army is now in full swing, though the invading forces have only been in possession of the capital for a few days.

Dozens of fuzzy-headed warriors are entering the recruiting offices.

Italy gave assurances that she had no intention of raising a native army in Ethiopia two days ago.—Reuter.

Annexation Decree

Geneva, May 10.

It is reported that the Italian representative on the League of Nations has privately handed to M. Joseph Avenol, the Secretary-General, a copy of the decree for the annexation of Ethiopia.—Reuter.

Comment Withheld

London, May 10.

Official circles in London are withholding comment on Mussolini's announcement that the King of Italy has assumed the title of Emperor of Ethiopia.

The view is taken that any decision concerning recognition or non-recognition of the Italian annexation rests with the League.

Britain will not take action independently of the League.—Reuter.

Rome, May 10.

Te Deums were sung to-day in the principal churches of the land to celebrate the Italian triumph in Ethiopia.

It is understood that King Victor Emmanuel contemplates visiting Ethiopia in a few months, when peace is reorganised.

It is most unlikely that Signor Benito Mussolini will visit the country, however, as such a trip would necessitate a visit to Egypt. Signor Mussolini follows a rule never to visit foreign countries, and will not depart from it.—Reuter Special.

ITALY'S EXPORTS
VANISHING

Geneva, May 10.

The results of sanctions against Italy are shown in a report issued by the League of Nations Secretariat, in which returns from 43 countries applying these penalties show that their trade with Italy in February, 1936, was less than half that of the same month of the year previous.

The figures for March, 1936, are not yet complete. Up to now nineteen countries show that their exports to Italy have dropped from $10,000,000 (U.S. currency) in March, 1935, to $5,500,000 in March, 1936.

Their imports, at the same time, dropped from $7,000,000 to $2,000,000.

British imports for March, 1936, totalled $3,800, compared with $2,000,000 in March of 1935. Exports dropped from $2,000,000 in March, 1935, to $267,000 in March of this year.—Reuter Special.

"JINX"

New York, May 10.

Derringer, the Cincinnati pitching star, shocked the Pittsburgh Pirates to-day when he allowed only three hits. His mates scored six times on ten hits, Herman and Myers pounding out home runs.

The New York Giants beat Philadelphia six to two at New York and the Boston Braves were extended to twelve innings to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, five to four.

Giants knocked out twelve hits and the Phillies ten. The Braves scored on thirteen blows and the Dodgers had twelve. Errors featured this encounter, the winners having five and the losers four.

The Cardinals beat the Chicago Cubs, five to one, hitting seven to three. Both teams had an error.

The New York Yankees scored seven times on as many hits, Dickey and Dimaggio hitting homers, when they met and trounced the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Athletics scored twice on four drives, and committed two errors.

The match scheduled for Chicago, between the White Sox and St. Louis Browns, was postponed on account of rain. The Browns did not get a chance to tackle their bad luck again.

They have not won since April 22, when they created a furore by trimming the champions, the Detroit Tigers, in most impressive style. Since then, in spite of good hitting, they have just missed success a half dozen times. Their next will be their thirteenth game since they beat Detroit, and they are out to crack their "jinx."

Washington blanked Boston, scoring four runs, and Newsom's pitching allowed the Red Sox only six scattered hits. Kuhl's homer was one of the nine safeties the Senators obtained. Boston had two errors.

Owen hit two homers and Simmonds one when Detroit played Cleveland, but these, with the sixteen hits the Tigers totalled, were not sufficient to beat the Indians, who scored nine men on fifteen hits. Detroit committed three errors.—Reuter.

GOVERNMENT IN MARKET

New York, May 10.

Mr. J. S. Pardee, President of the Philippine Railway, has sent a letter to the Secretary and shareholders, predicting that they would be unable to pay the outstanding $3,549,000 of first mortgage four per cent. bonds when they mature on July 1, 1937.

He outlined a plan by which the Government would buy a substantial amount of the bonds, placing the entire railroad in the hands of the Philippine Commonwealth.

The following are the terms: Firstly, payment before January 1, 1937 of $360 for each $1,000 of bonds, not including coupons maturing on January 1 and July 1, 1937; secondly, payment of the full face amount of each such coupon at or before maturity; thirdly, payment of one dollar for each share of stock; fourthly, to pay the company $50,000 to provide for the expenses in connection with the sale.

It is urged that prompt deposit of securities should be made, because the Philippine Assembly meets in June, and "officers of the Company have been informed that the Commonwealth is prepared to consider purchase of a substantial amount of bonds and capital stock, provided they are able to purchase it at one time."

"Substantially more than a majority" are said to have already promised substantial deposits. Bonds are quoted at present at $300 in New York.—United Press.

BARON ALDENHAM WAS FORMER M.P.

London, May 10.

The death has occurred of Baron Aldenham, former Conservative M.P. for the City of London, which seat he held from 1902 to 1906. He was elected in the latter year, but retired in favour of the late Mr. A. J. Balfour. The deceased, who was born in Naples in 1846, was a partner in Antony Gibbs and Sons, merchants, of London. He was the second holder of the title, which was created in 1890, and succeeded his father in 1907. He owned about 5,000 acres of land.

The new Baron is the Hon. Gerald H.B. Gibbs, who is 65 years of age and is also a partner in Antony Gibbs and Sons.—Reuter.

What can be the matter?

When your good little son suddenly becomes cross, contrary, tearful... something more than his disposition is to blame.

Probably he is constipated... he needs a laxative. But he is so to give him a laxative suited to a child's sensitive system. Give him Castoria—the laxative made especially for children—from babyhood to eleven years.

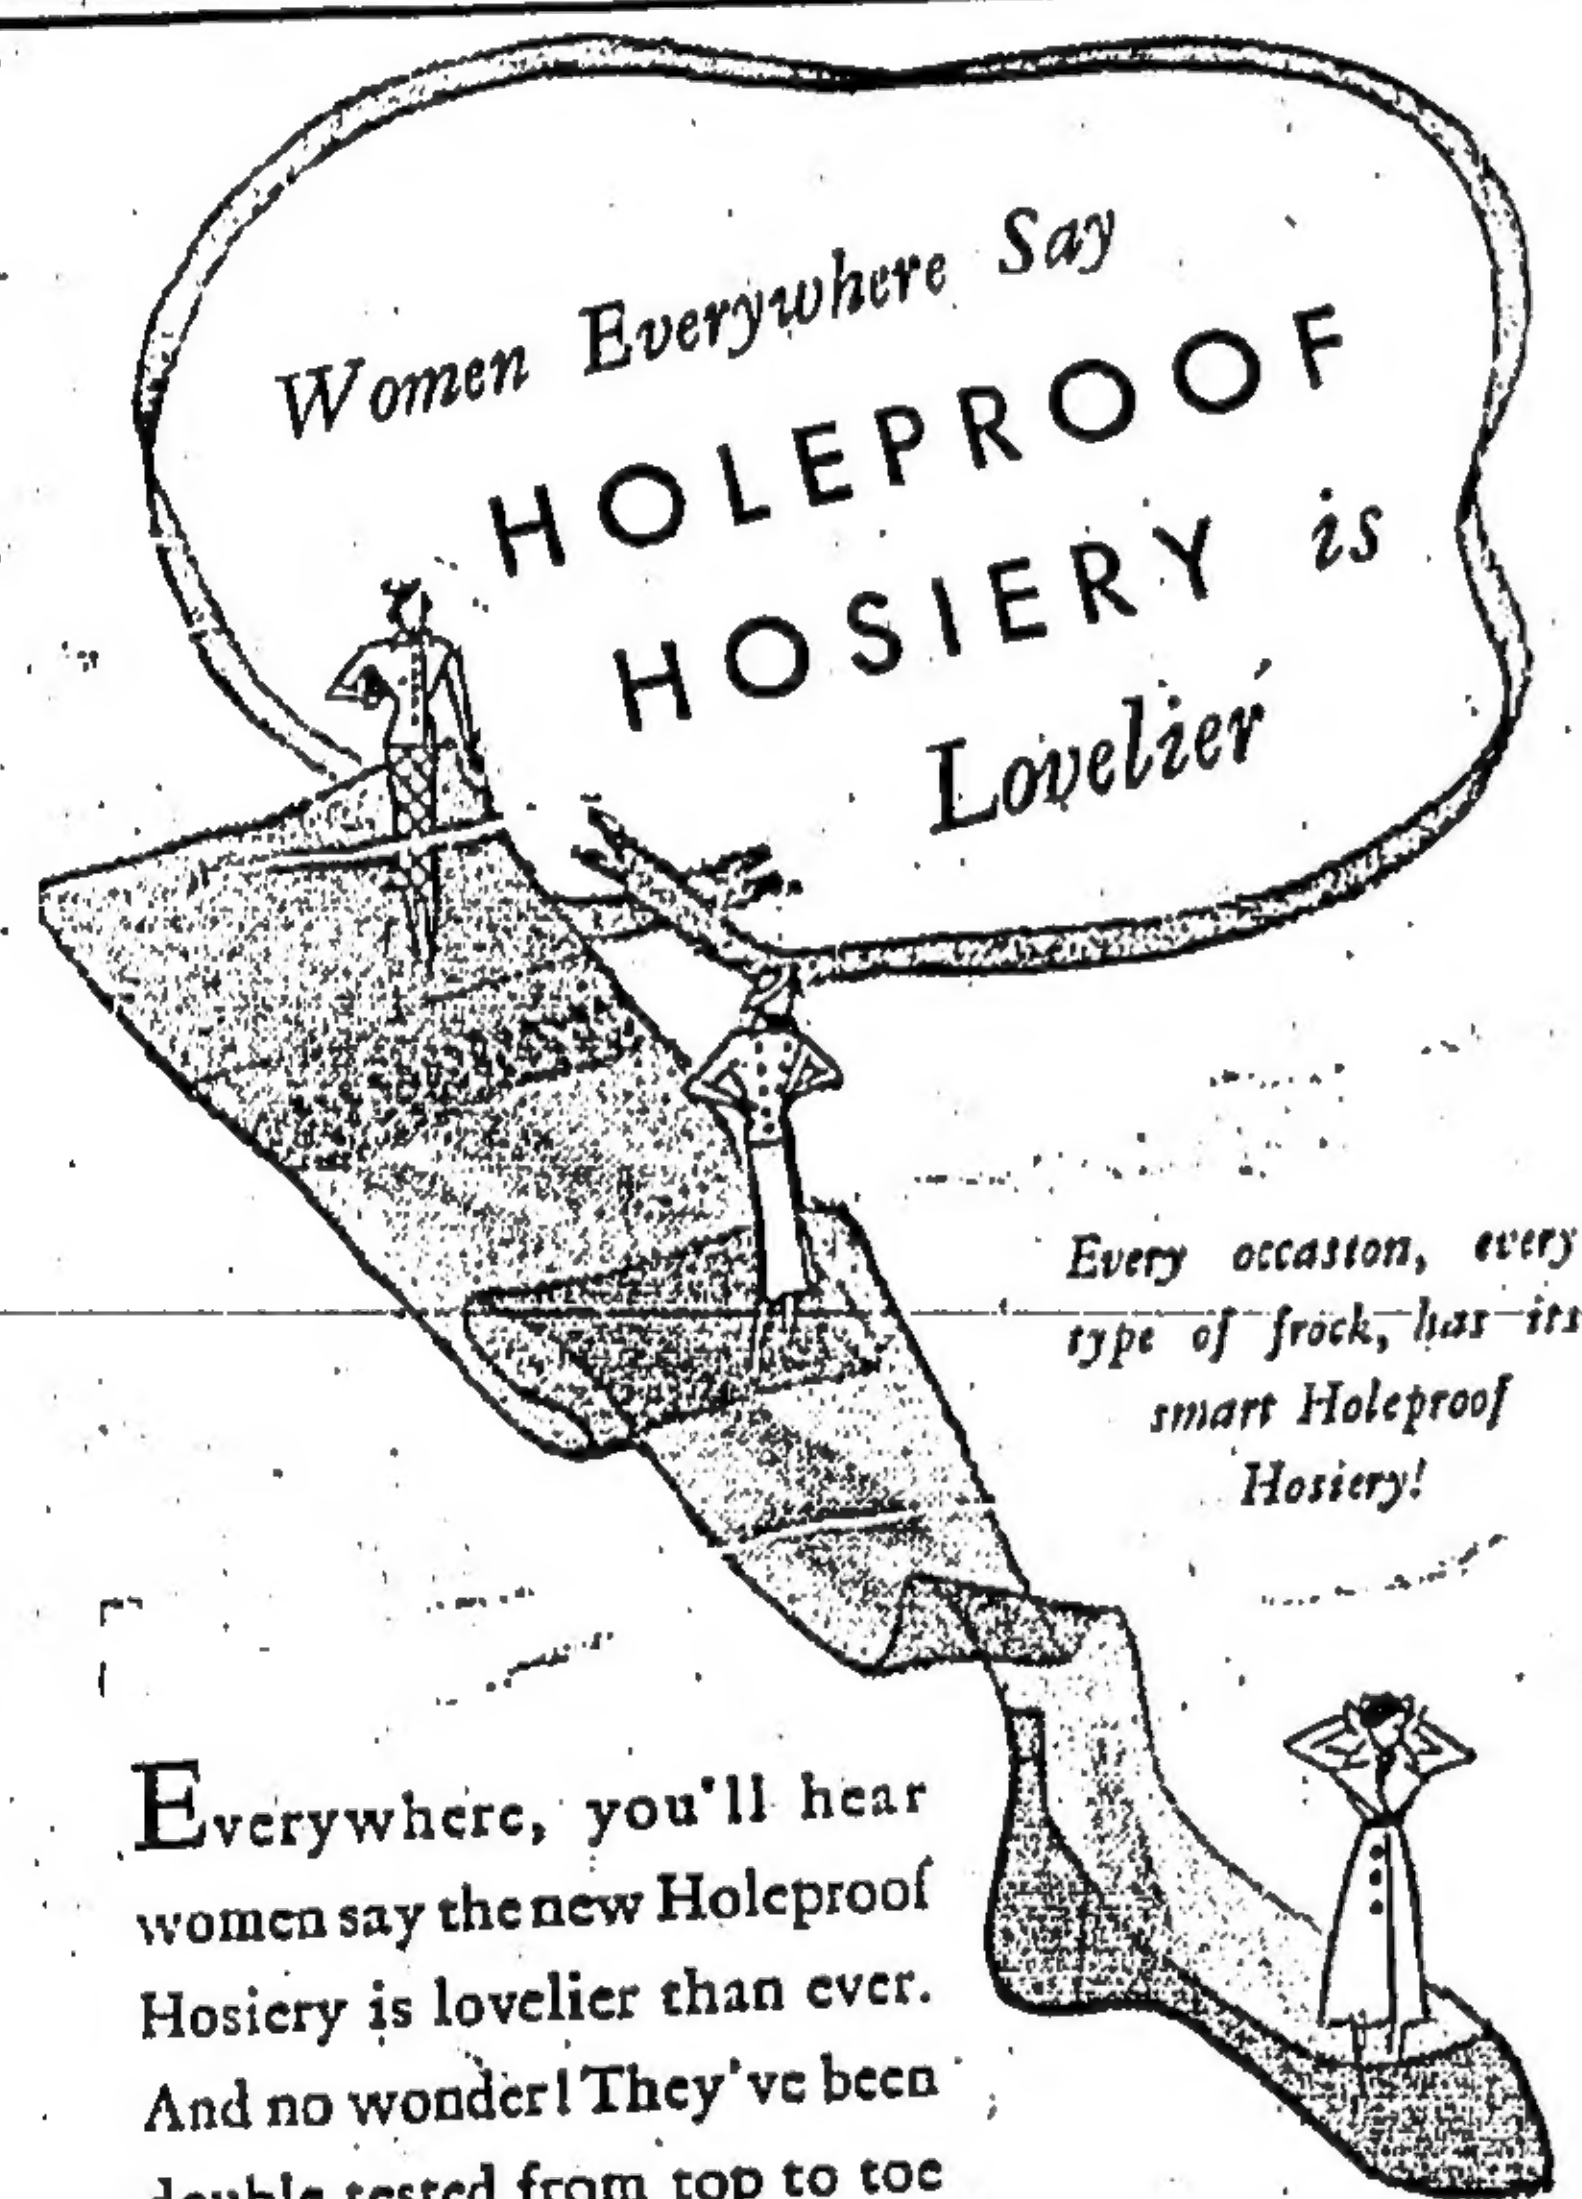

In 5,000,000 American homes Castoria is the standby when a child is out of sorts. Mothers depend upon it because it is thorough and gentle... will never cause gripping pain or upset stomach like some of the harsh adult laxatives.

And children love Castoria's pleasant taste. They take it gladly.

Buy a bottle of Castoria today. Discover the ideal laxative for your child. It contains no castor oil!

CONFERENCE OF PROPHETS

PREDICTION THAT THE KING WILL LIVE TO BE 70

ASTROLOGERS held a conference—believed to be the first in Britain—at Harrogate last month, and before it opened, Mr. H. H. Burnell, of Pool (Yorks), the organiser, declared in an interview that no prophecies would be made. "Prophecies are all clap-trap," he is reported as saying.

But across tea-tables in the sedate surroundings of the conference hall the assembly of earnest men and women—mostly women—managed to make just a few predictions, including:

King Edward will live to a good old age.
Japan has troublous times ahead. There will be no European war and Britain will lead in a general conciliatory movement which may end in a federation of United States of Europe.

Trouble is coming to Mussolini. Triumph for pacific negotiations so far as Germany is concerned with one or more foreign countries, probably neighbours.

"EXACT SCIENCE"
Astrology is an exact mathematical science, declared Mrs. J. Norman Rhodes, treasurer of the Astrological Lodge of London.

Then by the aid of constellations she proceeded to demonstrate just why the London Naval Conference was fated to fail from the day it began; how Britain will lead Europe through difficult times to peace and how Japan is in for trouble.

In other corners of the room South Africa was seceding from the British Empire; Hitler's personal stock was rising; King Edward was "being as

A HAPSBURG PRINCE TO WED BLONDE ENGLISH GIRL

Romance Began At Dances In Vienna, She Says

By A Special Representative

Vienna, April 28.
MISS MARIE THERESE WOOD, a pretty, blonde English girl whose home is in Vienna, has become engaged to Prince Ernst von Hohenberg, second son of Austria's tragic Archduke Franz Ferdinand, whose murder at Sarajevo led to the world war.

She is twenty-five. The prince is thirty-one. I spoke to a breathlessly happy girl to-day at the smart flat in Vienna's Mayfair, where she lives with her parents, Captain and Mrs. Jervis Wood.

She is their only child. She was giving a tea party to her girl friends, telling them all about her engagement.

"Yes," she said, to me, "it is true, and I am terribly happy. We shall be married in Vienna. We don't yet know when. Probably in May—or perhaps I had better say we are waiting a secret. In the same way, we are not telling where we are going to spend our honeymoon."

"The prince and I have known each other fairly well for some time. I live in Vienna, and we have met at many dances and other social events. We only decided to get married a fortnight ago. We tried to keep it quiet."

DIAMONDS, RUBIES

"The prince has given me an engagement ring consisting of two diamonds set in rubies." And the future princess returned to her simple English tea.

"The prince was shy when I spoke to him. He is more at home stage."

He admitted the engagement, and added: "But please don't make too much fuss about it. We shall live on my estates in Austria after our marriage."

Miss Wood, who is known to her friends as "Majesty," is a first-class golfer, painter, rider, and is typically English.

Her father Captain Wood, is an African explorer and big-game hunter. He has just returned from an expedition to Tanganyika.

GOOD SPORTSMAN

He said: "My wife and I are very happy that our daughter is marrying a man like the prince. He is a good sportsman and huntsman. I know him well."

The marriage will be a Roman Catholic ceremony. Both the prince and Miss Wood are Roman Catholics. By her marriage Miss Wood will become a member of the Hapsburg family.

Prince Hohenberg is a grand-nephew of the Emperor Franz Josef, who, by declaring war on Serbia in 1914, precipitated the world war.

If his father, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, had not made a morganatic marriage with the Countess Chotek, Prince Hohenberg would be in direct line of succession, after his elder brother, to the Austrian throne.

After her marriage, Countess Chotek was made the Duchess of Hohenberg.

MILLIONS FOR RUSSIAN TEACHERS

Moscow, May 1.
Stalin, the Soviet leader, today announced a £40,000,000 Easter present to school teachers and other school employees, whose salaries are to be raised on a graduated scale according to experience and qualifications.

The sum earmarked for this purpose brings Russia's education budget for the current year to £480,000,000.

The average increase will be about 15 per cent., which will bring the salaries of educational directors in cities to about £24 a month, and those of teachers in villages to about £6 a month.

Wages of teachers in remote districts will be raised by 50 per cent., and those teaching deficient children by 25 per cent.—United Press.

M. MAURICE PRIVAT, the famous French author, began to read the message of the stars three years ago. To-day he is the foremost astrologer of France. He foretold, among other sensational events: Assassination of M. Doumer, President of the French Republic; Tragic death of King Albert of the Belgians; Death of M. Barthou, French Foreign Minister who was assassinated with King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia at Marseilles. Special articles by M. Privat are to be published in the Hongkong Telegraph. The first—a horoscope of King Edward VIII.—is in this page.

FRANCE'S FOREMOST ASTROLOGER CASTS

KING EDWARD VIII'S HOROSCOPE

WHEN King Edward was born the heavens were magnificently propitious and almost without dissension, which is very rare. Aquarius was rising in the east, announcing the coming of a modern prince, while Mid-Heaven in the sign of Sagittarius put him into perfect harmony with his people.

Prosperity

With Sagittarius in Mid-Heaven at the time of his birth, King Edward's reign will remain surely bound up with prosperity and a national era of magnificence.

With the Ascendant in Aquarius, the subject has the faculty of viewing a problem from all angles, is ingenious in resource, susceptible to kindness, practical and inventive. He feels the need to be in tune with Nature, and has a love of apples, preferably uncooked.

He is patient, but his patience can be tried, and then his will is manifested imperiously.

Memory

The Sun being in Cancer at the time of his birth, King Edward has a retentive and widespread memory, and gets beneath the surface of men and things. He is imaginative and intuitive, and likes changes of scene. Often his air will be in tune with Nature, and he is genial, and appreciates humour. Remembrance is a cult with him.

HIS Majesty's slim figure is indicated by the position of Cancer. He would have derived greater height from Aquarius but for a quadrant of Pluto in the Ascendant and a slight quadrant of Uranus in the degree which was rising from the horizon.

Popularity

Immense personal popularity is shown, the Moon being in the Ascendant and almost in reception with Venus, which gives an invincible and sublime love of the people. It is also the Fourth House, with three planets—Pluto, Neptune and Jupiter—showing a splendid heredity and promising even greater riches in later years, as well as limitless renown and incomparable power.

The position of Venus in the Third House shows perfectly harmonious relationship of the subject with his brothers and sister. The position of Mercury indicates the gift of diplomacy exercised with a force and a charm that are irresistible.

Saturn in the Eighth House is a most excellent assurance of longevity, and this is not the only one. Uranus is in the Ninth and proves a desire to bring about reforms by using the lessons of the past to fertilize the future.

Here, too, it is indicated that once the King has come to a decision, he will see it is carried out.

MARS is in its sign, Aries, which indicates a wealth of virtues, courage, and a love of sport and risk.

The position of Jupiter in the celestial sphere when His Majesty was born gives him a well ordered ambition, imagination and prestige, and solicitude for youth.

Neptune

There is nothing more certain than that the new King will perform his duties with fascinating mastery and that his love of peace will be exercised constantly with beneficent results.

Had Edward the Eighth not been royal it would have been permissible to point out that plane have an element of danger for him through the asquadrature of Mars and Uranus and the quincunx of Neptune to Uranus. Although these aspects are corrected—the second notably by the conjunction of Venus and Jupiter, which is in sextile with Venus—caution is advisable, although the danger is not serious.

The Sun

THE Sun in the Fifth House shows a love of popular amusements and a pleasure in mingling with crowds. Turf successes are clearly indicated, and the royal colours will be victorious twice at the same meeting on more than one occasion.

He Will Wed

Will King Edward marry? The heavens show that he will, and that before very long a queen worthy of him will be crowned, and that the royal union will be blessed by several beautiful children. Edward the Eighth's queen will share his tasks and his glory.

His Majesty is clearly shown to be unalterably drawn towards France, and his Seventh House denotes that he will continue to foster the Entente Cordiale founded by his august grandfather. He is also shown to be interested in Germany's progress and evolution.

Taste

Let us resume what the aspects give: Taste, distinction, and a sense of the beautiful; A tender solicitude for his mother; Faithful service; admiration from those around him; A love of animals, especially small animals; Fearlessness, activity, initiative, need to get quick results of anything undertaken, impulsiveness; Determination in face of obstacles; Authority, energy, battles hard fought and won; Continuous effort, coolness, and eloquence which produces instant effect; ability to govern, the art of expressing his exact thoughts; A long life; An intense love of justice and fairness; Interest in new developments and new inventions; Love of travel and adventure; Brilliant close of his reign.

Great Destiny

THERE is an exceptional combination of felicitous signs in the horoscope of King Edward. The conjunction of the three planets Pluto, Neptune, and Jupiter in Gemini in the Fourth House occurs only at very rare intervals.

The benefactions of the Fourth House come not in youth but in the later stages of life, and there is nothing in the aspects of the heavens at the time of His Majesty's birth that can interfere with his great destiny.

Apart from the conjunction of the planets Pluto, Neptune, and Jupiter, there is another factor which is decisive; Saturn in the Eighth House is in harmonious triplicity with the triple conjunction and reaffirms that the King will exert the full force of his character and power in the years to come.

He came to the throne when Jupiter, Venus, and the Moon were in conjunction in mid-heaven, and this was the crowning of the promise of the heavens at his birth.

FINANCING NEW AIR FLEET

Imperial Airways Increase Capital

Preparations are being made for a new issue of capital on behalf of Imperial Airways.

It is expected that the issue will be a large one—probably approaching £2,000,000.

The money is required for the purchase of new flying boats for the overseas services, and also for landing equipment in the Azores and Bermuda in connection with the cross-Atlantic services.

The present capital of the company is £649,000 in Ordinary shares. The last balance-sheet showed cash amounting to £455,000, and Government securities £262,000.

The company has been able to show, in recent years, a continuous expansion of business.

CAT'S 100-MILE WALK

London, April 26.

After three weeks' absence a black Persian cat has returned to its former home at Bourne-mouth from Eastbourne, a distance of more than 100 miles.

The cat's owners recently moved from Bournemouth to Eastbourne by rail and took the cat with them in a closed hamper.

Three weeks after the removal it walked into the house next door to its former home in good physical condition.

When the last report was issued, in October, the company had under construction, or on order, twenty-nine flying boats and twelve land planes. This compared with a fleet of forty-two aircraft actually in operation at that date.

Developing Empire Air Lines

These large orders had been placed with the knowledge and consent of the Government, following the decision that Imperial Airways was to be the instrument for developing the existing Empire air lines. Sir Eric Geddes told shareholders at the annual meeting that further capital would be required this year to carry these important developments into effect.

Details were to be announced when the agreement with the Government had been completed.

FOUR BRAVE MEN FROM THE EAST 5,000 MILES TO ATTEND KING-EMPEROR

FOUR tall, bearded men are looking to-day on London with the eyes of the East. All are Sikhs, members of a fighting race, and they have travelled 5,000 miles from the blazing heat of India to stand by the throne of the King-Emperor in London as his Indian orderly officers.

In a house in St. George's Road, Victoria, tailors and boot-makers fitted them for the splendid uniforms they will wear when they attend the King.

Subadar Ishar Singh, youngest of the four, holds the V.C. He is the only one of the party who has visited London before—when he attended the V.C. dinner in 1929.

SHY HERO

But he is shy about his exploits. He smiles and will not speak when they are mentioned.

Major E. N. Goddard, of the 12th Frontier Regiment, himself a veteran in North-West Frontier fighting, told how Ishar Singh, with two other men, kept a horde of tribesmen at bay.

"He was one of a convoy," Major Goddard explained. "Convoys are constantly passing up and down the North-West Frontier posts with supplies and sick men."

"Tribesmen were waiting in the mountains on either side of this convoy. There was fierce fighting, and he was badly wounded. He stuck to his Lewis gun, and eventually drove the enemy off. The convoy got through."

HAIR NEVER CUT.

Major Goddard will be adviser and father to these men throughout their four and a half months in England. "No Sikh cuts a hair of his head," he stated. "Their long beards are rolled up to a few inches' length

New Nazi Shells Burst Even If Hit By Drop of Rain

London, May 1.

AN anti-aircraft shell, so sensitive that contact with a rain-drop in flight would cause it to explode, has been developed by Germany. It reportedly is in standard use in the new German navy.

The projectiles will explode in passing through a single thickness of light airplane fabric. They are of slightly less than one-inch calibre and can be fired at the rate of 180 a minute.

British experts feared of the shell during the visit of the new Swedish warship Gotland.

and, with their long hair, tucked under their turbans.

"The date of their first attendance on the King is yet to be settled."

Other members of the party are Subadar-Major and Honorary Lieutenant Bhagat Singh, Sardar Bahadur, and Subadar-Major and Honorary Lieutenant Hardil Singh, Bahadur.

For all of them the first meeting with the King-Emperor will be the treasured reward of 30 years' loyal service—but for none more than Subadar Ishar Singh. He received his V.C. from the King, when, as Prince of Wales, he visited India.

BRITAIN'S SQUAD FOR OLYMPICS

130 START TO TRAIN

BUT 66 WILL GO

London.

Under the watchful eyes of a special committee about 130 British track and field athletes are preparing for the Olympic Games.

They are the candidates listed by the Amateur Athletic Association from whom the final team will be chosen next July, two weeks before the team leaves for Germany. A maximum of three competitors for each of the 22 Olympic track and field events will be sent, and every one of them must be capable of attaining the standard of the sixth competitor in the 1928 Amsterdam games.

Looking down the list, it is fairly easy to pick out those men who stand best chances of selection, particularly in the more popular events, such as the sprints and the middle-distance races.

The representation in such races as the 400 and 800 metres, in which Britain hitherto has scored chief Olympic successes, is particularly strong.

ROBERTS CRACKS QUARTER MILE

Among the candidates for the 400 metres is W. Roberts, who in a season of victories in 1935, put up a new German record of 57.7 for the quarter-mile. This time was only once beaten last year, by Eddie O'Brien on the Princeton track with 47.3. Another quarter-miler is A. G. K. Brown, of Cambridge University, who is hailed here as a potential world-beater. As a freshman he smashed two long-standing Cambridge records, one for the 440 yards and one for the half-mile. His best time in 1935 was 48.1 for the quarter.

These two are almost certain for the team, and Brown is also spoken of as a likely entrant for the 800 metres, in which event J. C. Stothard is the outstanding candidate. Stothard's best time in an undefeated 1935 season was 1 minute, 53.3 seconds.

Another half-miler is J. V. Powell, who, despite the fast time of 1 minute, 52 seconds, finished seventh in the 800 metres at Los Angeles in 1932.

SQUAD OF 25 TRAINS

Twenty-five men are training for these two events alone.

Likely choices in other chief events are:

100 metres—A. W. Sweeney, English sprint champion, W. Hargreave and K. E. Duncan. All three recorded "best" times of 19.9 last season. Duncan, who is a member of the Oxford University Athletic Club, trimmed the Harvard and Yale sprinters by more than two yards in 10 seconds, last summer.

200 metres—R. C. Wooderson, who won the A.A.A. championship mile, beating Jack Lovelock at his own fast finishing tactics. His best time in 1935 was 4:12, but he is improving fast.

110 metre hurdles—D. O. Finlay, British Empire and English champion for the 120 yard hurdles—held to be faster hurdler in Europe. His best time in 1935 was 14.9, only 3 seconds outside G. Salina's time for the shorter distance at Los Angeles.

The following athletes had best performances in field events in 1935, and therefore have most chance of selection (this year): High Jump—R. H. West, 6 feet, 3 inches. Broad Jump—E. Hoyle, 24 feet, 2½ inches. Pole Vault—F. H. Webster, 12 feet, 6½ inches.

100, Step and Jump—E. Hoyle, 46 feet, 3½ inches. Shot Put—R. L. Howland, 46 feet, 9½ inches. Discus—W. A. Land, 138 feet, 1 inch. Hammer—M. C. Nokes, 151 feet, 3 inches. Javelin—W. A. Land, 191 feet, 11½ inches.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

CATHOLIC CELEBRATION AT ST. TERESA'S

In all Catholic Churches yesterday, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima was celebrated, and special services were held.

"It was on this day in 1917 that three little children in the Portuguese town of Fatima, saw the apparition of Our Lady while they were attending their flocks on the countryside," says a Catholic writer in recording the event. "They saw the heavenly vision on the same date for six consecutive months."

The news of the apparition brought crowds to the spot, and many of these pilgrims were favoured with the sight of Our Lady. In a short space of time, all Portugal was talking of Our Lady of Fatima, and crowds flocked there to pray, to seek cures and to return thanks for favours received.

The Mayor of the town was against the public demonstrations, and even went so far as to imprison the three shepherd children for causing disorder.

But every sort of opposition, it is recorded, only served to increase the devotion of the people, so that when, after careful investigation, the Church approved of the devotion, the number of pilgrims who gathered at Fatima increased year after year, until now they number several hundred thousands.

Every year sees the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima celebrated with enthusiasm at the local Church of St. Teresa at Kowloon Tong. The Church yesterday afternoon presented an animated scene as hundreds of local Portuguese and Chinese Catholics gathered for the religious observances organized for the occasion.

In the morning a solemn Pontifical High Mass was celebrated, followed by the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. A Procession was held in the afternoon and included Boys Scouts, Girl Guides, pupils from Catholic Colleges and schools, representatives of Catholic organizations for men and women, and the Catholic clergy.

Impressive music was rendered by the Filipino Band and the Statuo of Our Lady of Fatima was carried in procession. Hundreds of Catholics took part.

After the procession, a service was held in the Church, conducted by the Rev. Father A. Riganti. An inspiring sermon was preached by the Rev. Father T. Conney, S.J., and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed.

TRAFFIC REPORTS

LITTLE GIRL KNOCKED DOWN BY LORRY

Li Ming, 21, cook, was discharged when he was brought before Mr. Balfour at the Central Police Court on Saturday charged with having a warning device other than a bell on his bicycle. S. Inspector Mist explained the defendant had an electric horn operated by a dynamo, as well as a bell.

"It is stated in regulations that no other warning device except a bell is allowed to be fitted to a bicycle," said the Police officer.

A seven-year-old girl, Chan Kwai-hing, was admitted to the Government Civil Hospital on Friday suffering from injuries received when she was knocked down by lorry No. 3095 in Queen's Road, West.

A Chinese girl was knocked down by motor lorry No. 3537 in Hamilton Street, Yaumatei district, and was subsequently removed to the Kowloon Hospital.

Fall in Alighting
While Kowloon motor bus No. 450 was in motion in Nathan Road outside the Dairy Farm Company's premises, a woman, Leung Heung, of 68, Elgin Street, alighted and fell. She was sent to the Kowloon Hospital where she was found to be suffering from shock. She was not detained.

ITALY ANNEXES ETHIOPIA

ITALIAN KING AS EMPEROR

Rome, May 9.
The Fascist Grand Council met at 10 a.m. yesterday and rose at 10.10, after which the Cabinet met for three minutes. Signor Mussolini then made a speech to a huge crowd and announced the official decree placing the Empire of Ethiopia under the full sovereignty of Italy.

King Victor Emmanuel assumes the title of Emperor of Ethiopia.

Abyssinia will be ruled by a Governor General with the title of Viceroy and the Governors of Eritrea and Somaliland will be under him.

Marshal Badoglio will be Viceroy of Abyssinia.—Reuter.

A Fascist Empire
Rome, May 10.
Signor Mussolini in the course of his speech said, "Italy has at last got her Empire, a Fascist Empire, which bears indelible signs of the determination and the power of the Roman emblem."

"It is an Empire of peace, because Italy wants peace for herself and for all; but we shall defend it against anyone who opposes us with arms."

"This Empire is the goal to which for 14 years the eruptive energies of the young generation of Italy have been disciplined. This is the tradition of Rome, which, after conquering, associated defeated peoples with her destiny."

"This closes a period of our history and opens another with an immense doorway towards possibilities of the future."

"Will you be worthy of it?"
A roar of assent rose from the crowd.

Signor Mussolini said, "This cry is like a great path which binds you before God and men to life and death."

The crowd throughout the speech showed such frantic enthusiasm that it was hardly possible to make one sentence without being interrupted by bursts of applause.—Reuter.

Few Cases in History
Rome, May 10.
Mussolini shouted the announcement to those in the crowded streets; to millions more by radio all over the nation, "Ethiopia's destiny is sealed to-day."

He announced one of the few cases in modern history in which one nation has conquered and annexed another.

The annexation is in defiance of the League, Britain and France. The League Council meets on Monday to consider a fait accompli by which Italy is in full sovereignty of 350,000 square miles and 10,000,000 persons.

It Duce challenged the world to thwart annexation and he said that he will defend Ethiopia "against anyone with Italy's blood."

Signor Mussolini spoke for eleven minutes. "The Italians have created with their blood an Empire which they will make fecund with their work."

"It is an Empire of peace because Italy wants peace for itself and for all and only goes to war when forced."

"Italy will create the Empire for civilisation and humanity of the world."

OPEN AIR SERVICE
ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH
INNOVATION

An original idea designed to enable Hongkong people to combine religious observance with the pleasure of being in the open-air, found practical form in the service conducted by the Vicar of St. Andrew's, the Rev. J. R. Higgs, in the grounds of St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon at 9 p.m. yesterday.

The Vicar told a newspaper reporter that on Sunday next people spent the day at the beach and therefore missed the usual church service. With this new arrangement he hoped to attract these absentees, as the lateness and coolness of the hour made it possible for those who spent the day bathing to attend.

He had attended similar services on the racetrack at Shanghai where large numbers of people attended. If the idea caught on here he intended holding the service regularly during the summer months instead of the Military band concerts which he organised last year.

A congregation of over 120 people attended yesterday evening's service at St. Andrew's. The well-known hymns, "Glorious things of Thee are spoken," "Jesus shall reign," "Jesus, lover of my soul" and "The King of Love" and Psalm 23 were sung, the Lesson being read by Colonel C. St. G. Kirke.

The Vicar conducted the service from a platform and behind, in a semi-circle, were the choir. Mr. Rupert Baldwin was at the piano assisted by Mr. L. E. Kirby (violin).

The congregation sat under a network of coloured lights.

The Vicar preached an interesting sermon on happiness, which he said, was the most popular and most important subject in the world to-day. Everybody strived after happiness and everybody had his, or her, own ideas about attaining it. To live God-like, he said, was the only way, and there was no substitute.

9 p.m. Approved
Before the Blessing was pronounced, at the request of the Vicar, there was a show of hands as to whether 9 p.m. was a suitable time for the service. There was a unanimous response and the Vicar announced that a similar service will be held next Sunday evening at that time.

At the conclusion of the service an orchestral concert was given by Mrs. L. E. Kirby (piano), Mr. Kirby, Mr. Evans, Miss Nora Flint and Miss Brown (violins).

Mrs. R. C. Bates sang a solo, "The Lord is my light" and Miss Flint gave a violin solo. Mr. Baldwin accompanied.

The concert finished with the hymn, "Abide with me," sung by all present.

The Vicar expressed thanks to the artists and announced that a special item would be arranged to take place after every Sunday evening service.

200,000 People
Rome, May 10.
It is estimated that 200,000 people gathered in the Piazza Venezia to hear Signor Mussolini's historic announcement.

The garrison of Rome was drawn up round the tomb of the unknown soldier.

Buildings in the square were lit with torches and hundreds of electric bulbs. All the streets in the centre of the city were blocked with the dense traffic. The atmosphere was tense with expectation, the church bells pealing at intervals.—Reuter's Special.

Rome, May 10.

King Victor Emmanuel assumed the title of Emperor of Ethiopia immediately.

It is noteworthy that Signor Mussolini's speech did not mention the League or any other Powers with interests in Abyssinia.

It is presumed that Baron Aloisi will refuse to discuss the Abyssinian question at Geneva on Monday and deny the right of Mr. Waldi Mariani, the Ethiopian delegate, as a "subject" of the new Emperor and claim that he, Aloisi, alone represents Abyssinia.—Reuter.

IS A NEW LEAGUE
NECESSARY?

"The League, as we know it, is dying; now let us have another League, not with its legions of committees, but with its battalions and battleships, to police the world and secure international justice". So writes a correspondent, who, anticipating the argument that such a plan is too simple, declares that simplicity and directness are qualities investing the highest purposes of mankind; while complication, compromise and hesitation are qualities that mark the lowest human impulses. The idea he propounds is not, of course, a new one. The creation of some such international force was obviously contemplated by those who drew up the Covenant of the League, in which provision is made for joint military and naval, as well as economic, action against an aggressor. If such a force were to be brought into being, however, there would need to be very definite and specific amendment of the Covenant, whereby the signatories would all agree, without reservation, to join hands immediately an offending nation had been determined to have been guilty of aggression. But is the existing machinery, if properly operated, inadequate to the needs of the present situation? It is to be agreed that those who would compel peace must be strong enough to enforce it. But, in the present instance, is the combined strength of Great Britain, France and Soviet Russia—leaving aside the forces of the smaller nations—inferior to that of Italy? To be frank, it is not the inadequacy of the potential military force at the disposal of the League, but the absence of the will and determination to use it, that has resulted in the present tragic situation. Boiled down, the Italian triumph in Ethiopia is not, in view of the methods used and the opposition offered, a brilliant military achievement; rather is it, thus far, a diplomatic victory. The French and Italian concord, which resulted in the formation of the Stresa front, was a very clever move by Mussolini, for it virtually assured that France would not be over-enthusiastic in measures designed to stop his African adventure. Whilst the French people are proud of their realistic and logical attitudes towards political problems in general, they apparently do not

She Began where Mae West ends

Last Saturday was an eventful anniversary in the history of the old London Music Hall. On that date, fifty-one years ago, commenced the stage career of Marie Lloyd who began, on May 9, 1885, where Mae West ends in 1936.

In the following article, a well-known Hongkong resident who was a great follower of the old-time Music Hall, tells the story of the career of the Idol of the Halls.

BORN in 1870, Marie Lloyd's first professional engagement was at the Eagle Music Hall in the City Road, London, on May 9, 1885 under the name of Bella Delmore, where she sang "My Soldier Laddie" and "Time is Flying."

She reappeared at the same Hall in the following month, and was then "billed" as Marie Lloyd.

She next appeared at the Falstaff Music Hall in Old Street, which appearance was followed by an engagement at the Sobriety Music Hall, Hackney. From there she went to the Star at Bernersley, where she sang "And the Leaves began to Fall" and "Sure to Fetch Them."

After this, she was engaged at the Bedford Music Hall in Camden Town, whence she migrated to the Middlesex ("the Old Mo") in Drury Lane, where she first made her name with the song "The Boy that I love sits up in the Gallery."

NOTES OF THE DAYECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

New Zealand, according to Lord Bledisloe, an ex-Governor-General, has an insularity of outlook, traceable to geographical detachment from the humming centres of world activity. He says that there is a considerable proportion of the population which deprecates the admission of human migrants or pedigree livestock from the Motherland. For his part, he says that five years' close study of New Zealand's natural resources, industries, international trade and commercial potentialities lead him to the conclusion that there is no economic future for that country "unless she opens her arms (with proper discrimination) to both—and that without undue delay." Then Lord Bledisloe says:

"The chief lubricant of industry, the only key to unlock the treasure-house of a rich country's abundance—natural wealth is capital, coupled, of course, with business aptitude and industrial experience for its fruitful employment. New Zealand, perhaps unconsciously, is crying aloud for British capital, as well as British people, while both in large masses remain idle here at home, the former earning a paltry one and one-half per cent. on deposit at our banks and the latter constituting a well-nigh insoluble social and political problem in areas of industrial exhaustion or progressive industrial decadence."

see the fallacy of condoning the acts of one aggressor while trying to rally support against Germany's denunciation of the Locarno Treaty. The conclusion which is thrust upon us is that France's supreme concern is rather for her own security than for meticulous observance of the League Covenant. This is, in fact, the supreme factor in the situation, and it largely explains the ineffectiveness of the League in its handling of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

Her success there was such that she obtained an engagement—which lasted for twelve months—at the Oxford Music Hall (one of the three Syndicate Halls—Oxford, London Pavilion and Tivoli). Soon afterwards she was appearing regularly at all of these last mentioned Halls, being billed to "do her turns" there at 9.40, 10.10 and 10.35 p.m. respectively.

In 1891 she took the part of "Princess All Fair" in the pantomime "Humpty Dumpty," at Drury Lane, wherein Dan Leno, Herbert Campbell and Little Tich also appeared. In the following year she again appeared at Drury Lane as "Little Red Riding Hood" along with Ada Blanche and the three Artists mentioned above.

In 1893 she took the part of "Polly Perkins" in "Robinson Crusoe" at Drury Lane, and was as much admired for her dancing as for her acting and singing.

In 1898 she appeared as "Dick Whittington" in the Pantomime of that title at the Crown Theatre, Peckham, which ran for more than two months. In the following year she took the part of "Prince Heliotrope" in "Cinderella," at the same theatre—her sister Alice appearing as "Cinders"—which pantomime also had a two months' run.

She also appeared in pantomime and variety at all the leading Halls in the United Kingdom, America, Australia and South Africa.

By

"An Old Stager"

SHE scored a great success in Paris, being accorded a reception greater than that of any of her predecessor Artists. On her return, she brought back a song entitled "The Naughty Contingent." In Berlin she headed the bill, despite the presence of several famous Continental "Stars."

In 1901 she toured Australia, and upon her return to London in November that year, she was uproariously welcomed at the Oxford—her reception being so effusive that she completely broke down.

On her fiftieth birthday she was appearing at the Bedford, Camden Town, and her welcome that night exceeded even her reception at the Oxford in 1901.

AMONG the numerous songs sung by her were:—"Never let a Chance go by," "That was Before My Time," "Then you Wink the Other Eye," "Oh! Mr. Porter," "The Naughty Contingent" ("You should go to France"), "Whacky, Whacky, Whack," "Keep off the Grass," "Twiggly Voo?", "There They are, the Two of Them on Their Own," "Everything in the Garden's Lovely," "An if She Didn't Know," "The Wedding Bells were Ringing,"

"Maid of London, Ere We Part," "She'd Never had Her Ticket Punched Before," "I'd Love to Live in Paris all the Time," "A Little of What You Fancy does You Good," "Madame Duvan," "Garn Away What Dyer take Me for," "The Wrong Girl."

HER songs were, generally, very simple, but with catchy melodies, and she "put them over" by methods all her own—a wink, a laugh, a nod, or a glance—and the simple young lady possessor of a garden became quite an "interesting" character. A somewhat amusing story used to be told concerning a deputation from the London County Council who demanded a "try out" before themselves of some of Miss Lloyd's latest songs. The demand was duly met. Marie sang the songs in best Sunday School fashion sans wink, sans laugh, sans glance, sans anything other than the best "bread-and-butter" style. The deputation expressed satisfaction with the performance, and rose to take their departure.

"Here, half a mo", said Marie. "Your Show's over. Now I'll have mine. I'm going to sing to you a couple of songs your wives sing". She thereupon many a heart bowed down," while the public in hundreds showered flowers on her grave.

WRITING in "The Saturday Review" for October 14, 1922, in reference to her death, Mr. James Agate (the celebrated Dramatic Critic) paid, among other tributes to her memory, the following:

"When in the Tottenham Court Road, I saw, tucked under the newsboy's arm, the sheet which announced that Marie Lloyd was dead, everything around me became still.

"The street lost its hubbub, and for a space I was alone with a personal sorrow.

"In moments of emotion one is apt to notice the little things, and at once I remarked that, on the poster, the artist's name was pre-faced with the word 'Miss.'"

"Death, it seemed, laying his hand upon her who was known over the whole English-speaking world as 'Marie,' must use more ceremony.

"Marie—pronounced with the broad vowel beloved of the Cockney—was in everybody's mouth that day, in club and barrack-room, in bar-parlour and in modest home. On the high seas 'Marie's dead' would be droned from ship to ship.

"Returning from Kempton a party of bookmakers fell to speaking of the dead artist. One said, with tears in his eyes, 'She had a heart, had Marie! The size of Waterloo Station,' another rejoined.

"Her abounding generosity was a commonplace of the profession. She would go down to Hoxton, where she was born, and make lavish distribution to the street-urchins of boots and shoes which she fitted with her own hands. She had numberless pensioners dependent upon her charity. She earned some two hundred thousand pounds, and gave it all away.

"God rest her," said the bookmaker who had first spoken, and bared his head. That night, at Blackfriars Ring, a bruiser with the marks of many fights declared: 'We shan't none of us see the likes of Marie again. She wur a great artist.'"

"MARIE'S 'dial,' as the Cockney would put it, was the most expressive on the halls. "She had beautiful hands and feet. She knew every board on the stage and every inch of every board. In-short, she knew her business."

"But it is not my purpose to write now of technical excellence. Rather would I dwell on the fact that she was adored by the lowest classes, by the middle people, and by the swells.

"I hope, she said in a little speech before the curtain at her last performance at the Alhambra, 'I hope I may, without bigotry, allude to my past triumphs. Poor soul, it is we who should ask to be delivered from that vice.

"Marie broadened life and showed it, not as a mean affair of refusal and restraint, but as a boon to be lustily enjoyed. She redeemed us from virtue too strait-laced, and her great heart cracked too soon."

SAID TO HAVE GONE BLIND

POSITION OF MR. Y.T. FUNG

It is learned on good authority that Macaroni, the Victor Sassoon of Shanghai chestnut gelding owned by Sir and Mrs. H. H. Priestley, is totally blind in both eyes. Race-goers may recollect that Macaroni won the All Out Stakes on March 14 last, but that consequent upon the suspension of its jockey, Mr. Y. T. Fung, for bumping and boring, the race was awarded to Mr. Dunbar's Mistake Bay.

It is now said that Macaroni's connections are writing to the stewards of the Hongkong Jockey Club concerning the loss of Macaroni's eyesight, and it is hoped that the executive will consider the reinstatement of Mr. Fung, whose suspension expired at the end of the first half of the racing season.

Macaroni started his racing career in 1934 and won the Black Rock stakes and the Big Wave Bay Handicap. Last year he annexed the Canton Handicap, the Lead Mine Handicap, the Tweed Island Bay Handicap and the Nathan Handicap, as well as twice running second and once third. His only success this season, apart from being placed several times during the annual meeting, was in the All Out Stakes, which, as previously indicated, he was made to concede to Mistake Bay.

Macaroni's earnings in stake money amounted to $9,775, the biggest dividend paid out by him being $55.40 for a win in the Big Wave Bay Handicap.

TRIBUTE TO O'REILLY AND GRIMMETT

"O'Reilly and Grimmett bowled wonderfully," said Stan McCabe when discussing the recent Australian cricket tour of South Africa. "They bowled probably better than ever before."

The great batsman who played such great innings on tour returned to Sydney and reported a wonderful tour with the hospitality splendid to a degree. Everyone enjoyed the trip from start to finish.

Brown and Fingleton were the mainstays of the batting, he said. They were consistent throughout the tour. Fingleton was now a great

GOOD FORM SHOWN BY SIXTEEN COUPLES

Sixteen couples took part yesterday in the first official K.C.C. trials in preparation for the tennis league season which starts on Monday, May 25, and on the whole the form displayed was quite promising.

A possible "A" Division combination played and defeated a possible "B" Division team by seven sets to two, while the "C" Division Possibles beat the "D" Division outfit by 5½ to 3½.

G. Bodiker and E. C. Fincher combined in useful style to win all three sets without being extended, while A. E. P. Guest and F. Grose gave an effective display.

Teddy Ramsay, playing below form, partnered E. F. Fincher and suffered two reverses.

G. Clark, a newcomer, played very well for the "B" team, while Burnett improved enormously after an indifferent start.

Only four ladies turned out for the mixed doubles trials, though for the most part they were in good fettle. Mrs. Hosford played particularly well, while Miss Mackenzie indicated she had made improvement during recent months.

Though of some value, the trials did not offer any definite pointer to league pairings, and next Sunday another trial will be staged, when it is expected that probable league combinations will be nominated and opposed to each other.

Yesterday's results in detail were:

MEN'S DOUBLES

Possible "A" team v. Possible "B" team

E. C. Fincher and G. Bodiker ("A") beat N. A. E. Mackay and F. A. Broadbridge 6-2; beat A. A. Gray and G. C. Burnett 6-1; beat G. Clark and T. Ramsay 6-2.

A. W. Ramsay and E. F. Fincher ("A") lost to Mackay and Broadbridge 3-6; lost to Gray and Burnett 3-6; beat Clark and Pulos 6-2.

A. E. P. Guest and F. Grose ("C") beat Mackay and Broadbridge 6-3; beat Gray and Burnett 6-0; beat Clark and Pulos 6-3.

Possible "C" Team v. Possible "D" Team

C. E. Watson and R. S. Capell ("C") beat A. L. Fisher and A. G. Phillips 6-3; beat N. J. Bebbington and L. E. Kirby 6-2; beat D. Orr and H. Crubb 6-0.

G. A. White and W. Gittins ("C") drew with Fisher and Phillips 6-6; beat Bebbington and Kirby 6-4; drew with Orr and Crubb 6-4.

J. S. Smith and J. L. Anderson ("A") lost to Fisher and Phillips 3-6; drew with Bebbington and Kirby 6-6; lost to Orr and Crubb 4-6.

MIXED DOUBLES

G. Bodiker and Miss A. Mackenzie beat E. F. Fincher and Miss M. Griffiths 6-4; lost to A. E. P. Guest and Mrs. Hosford 6-3; beat E. C. Fincher and Miss Dalziel 6-4.

player. "You can't mention one without the other," he stated. "They were a great pair."

E. C. Fincher and Miss O. Dalziel lost to E. F. Fincher and Miss Griffiths 4-6; lost to Bodiker and Miss Mackenzie 4-6; beat Guest and Mrs. Hosford 6-3.

E. F. Fincher and Miss M. Griffiths lost to Bodiker and Miss Mackenzie 4-6; beat E. C. Fincher and Miss Dalziel 6-4; drew with Guest and Mrs. Hosford 6-6.

A. E. P. Guest and Mrs. Hosford beat Bodiker and Miss Mackenzie 6-3; lost to Fincher and Miss Dalziel 3-6; drew with Fincher and Miss Griffiths 6-6.

U.S. RUGBY UNION XV

TO PAY VISIT TO AUSTRALIA

IN NEAR FUTURE

(By W. S. Hamilton)

The time is definitely near when a combined American team will visit Australia to play Rugby Union.

After some years of slow progress Rugby is now firmly established at the leading Eastern Universities as well as those in California.

The support of such institutions as Harvard, Yale and Princeton, is particularly important, not only because of their leading position in sport, but also because of their social and academic prestige. Where these three lead, others may well follow, particularly as Princeton's was generally acknowledged the champion gridiron team last season of the hundreds of universities in America.

LACK OF UNIFORMITY

For some time past feelers have been thrown out as to the possibility of a team representing the Californian Universities touring Australia, but, on various grounds, the idea has not been encouraged.

International tours must receive the sanction of the International Board, and a difficulty has been the lack of uniformity in America.

A United States Union was formed, but it was not able to function successfully owing to the practice of unlimited replacement adhered to by the universities of Northern California.

Thus, as in the gridiron game, as many as 30 might play for a side in one match. Advice has now been received in Sydney that Northern California has agreed to conform to the English rules, and the United States Union will begin to function as a controlling and affiliated body.

The way is now open for a tour of Australia, but it is felt that the game should first become more firmly established in America. Mr. T. Stewart, president of the Vancouver All Blacks, who is at present in Sydney, is anxious that the 1939-40 Australian team should visit America on its return from England.

LEYLAND scored 218 not out against Essex.

RUGBY UNION IN SYMPATHY

DISPENSATIONS

The granting to Australia and New Zealand of the touch-kicking dispensation shows that the Rugby Football Union, the controlling body in England, is much more sympathetic towards Dominion views than is generally supposed. The R.F.U. went out of its way to secure this particular concession, and generally has shown itself undeserving of the criticism sometimes levelled at it for autocratic control.

England is, in fact, willing to try several innovations, but has been checked by Scotland, Ireland and Wales—the reverse of what might have been expected.

When the touch-kicking dispensation was granted from 1922 to 1933, the R.F.U. was an independent body, of which New South Wales was an affiliated unit. Then the R.F.U. agreed to abide by the laws of the International Board, which included Scotland, Ireland and Wales, and it became a unit of that body. It was compelled, therefore, to withdraw the dispensation.

The matter was again raised by the New South Wales delegates, Messrs. Hill and Holden, at the Imperial Rugby Conference at the end of last year.

Conservative England, it has now been revealed, was actually willing that the touch-kicking amendment should be tried out in the home countries for two years. Scotland, Ireland, Wales and South Africa objected.

Notwithstanding this rebuff, England then sought dispensation from Australia and New Zealand. Still the others would not budge to the point of giving official sanction, but intimated that the decision could rest with the R.F.U., and the other unions would formally acknowledge receipt of any notification on the subject, without actually giving sanction. The R.F.U. advised New South Wales at the end of last week of its favourable decision, giving further proof of its sympathy.

The attitude of England may be gauged from the fact that the R.F.U. also was willing to adopt the New Zealand suggestion of amended scoring, providing for two points for a goal from a mark and three points for a field goal. Again Scotland, Ireland and Wales objected, but the report of Messrs. Holden and Hill shows that the matter will not rest there, and the scoring system will be reviewed following expression of opinions of clubs and players. Leader of the "radicals" was Mr. James Baxter, manager of the 1930 British tourists, who, it was thought, would have been the greatest stickler for tradition.

R. E. S. WYATT, took five wicket for 44 runs.

Splendid Form

CLUB FINISH STRONGLY

Their last two league football matches gave the Club two points, and to Alec Pearce a laurel crown for the best individual performance of the week-end.

Football has died hard again this season, but it could have been given no more attractive funeral than yesterday's encounter between Club and East Lancashire. The cooler temperature appeared to make all the difference, and, despite the fact that both were playing their 25th league match of the season, served up a fine brand of football.

Alec Pearce was the hero of the game, capping a mastery display of forward line leadership by scoring three goals in succession, thereby making a big contribution to the Club's 4-1 victory.

In all departments Club were superior, the soldiers making a disappointing start, then falling away again after a half-hearted recovery.

AN INSPIRATION

Lawton and Harmsworth stood between the Club and more goals; the result was decisive enough. It was an inspiration to put Pearce at centre-forward. At times he played well-high model football, initiating raid upon raid, and continually threatening the East Lancs' goal with his powerful long shots which were right on the target and demanded Harmsworth's closest attention.

Nichols, Hynes and Pearce were the pick of the Club team, though E. Strange, restored to inside left, was a source of worry to Swain and Steele.

Lawton alone played up to true form for the soldiers, while Smith was the one and only forward. Harmsworth was excellent in goal.

Hynes put the Club ahead in the first minute when a half shot just tricked past the upright. East Lancs, stung to action, penetrated the Club defence shortly afterwards and Smith gave Sandford a perfect pass. The centre-forward hit the upright with his shot, but from the rebound Hynes put in his own goal trying to clear while on the ground.

Club, however, quickly assumed ascendancy and Pearce put them two goals ahead before the interval. They continued to dominate after half time and deserved to score several times. Pearce completed his hat-trick and the scoring with the prettiest goal of the match when he got in an 18 yards' drive from an angle to beat Harmsworth all the way.

Rolla Wins In Re-Sail For Tai Yat Cup

The Royal Hongkong Yacht Club's Tai Yat Cup Race for the first and second boats of all classes in any series was re-sailed on Saturday afternoon over a course from Tat-hong Rock, covering a distance of 12½ miles, and resulted in a win for Rolla (Colonel Kirke), with Diana (Mrs. D. FUSILIERS STILL HAVE A CHANCE

OF RUNNERS-UP HONOURS IN SECOND DIVISION

Thanks to a remarkable 11-1 victory against the Club yesterday, Royal Welch Fusiliers have a chance of finishing runners-up in the second division. They have to play East Lancashire in the final match of the season. At present East Lancs lead by two points, but should the Fusiliers beat them on Wednesday, they will displace East Lancs from second place on goal average.

TWO WINS FOR SOUTH CHINA "B"

AGAINST MACAO CLUBS

KEEN FOOTBALL

(By Our Own Correspondent)

Macao, May 10. The Candrome enclosure in Macao was the scene of lively football encounters over the week-end when the South China "B" team from Hongkong made its appearance, and scored successes yesterday and to-day against the Argonauts and the Artillery Clubs.

In the first match the visitors were always more impressive than the opposition who were weakened by the absence of three of their foremost players. South China "B" asserted its superiority early on when following a corner, Yeung Poon-hon, centre forward, managed to secure the first goal three minutes after the kick-off. Five minutes later quick passing enabled South China to push home the attack as Lai Shu-wing, inside right, added the second goal. They continued in a leisurely fashion subjecting the Argonauts, the Argonauts goal, to a heavy bombardment, but putting themselves no further ahead before the interval.

A strong drive five minutes after resumption found South China with the third goal to their credit as Lai Shu-wing drove the ball home from a short pass. Despite being three goals down, the Argonauts gave glimpses of their normal form and Chi Shu-wing in the visitors' goal, had many an anxious moment. As play proceeded they were rewarded when a fine shot by E. Jesus provided the Argonauts with their lone goal.

Chung Fan-lan was particularly prominent "at back" and stemmed many vigorous drives. Lai Shu-wing was quick to grasp every opportunity and only a minute before the final whistle, gave South China "B" the decisive victory of 4 goals to 1 by driving the ball into the net.

Matched against the Artillery, the holders of the title of the Macao "A" League, South China played a tactful game throughout. The players displayed their nimbleness and had a fine control over the ball. The soldiers battled vigorously but often spoilt opportunities by their lack of direction.

Only a minute from kick-off, the visiting forwards were beyond the opposing half-back line and a splendid long shot by Ng Po-kui opened the scoring. Intent on consolidating their defence, the soldiers were quick to double-back until fifteen minutes (Continued on Page 9.)

Faith Baldwin's WIFE Versus SECRETARY

SYNOPSIS
Van and Linda Sanford have, with their third anniversary, achieved the seemingly impossible... an extraordinarily successful marriage based on their passionate love and mutual trust. They return from a fishing junk and Van goes to his office, planning to work, aided by his secretary, "Whitey" Wilson, as efficient as she is beautiful. They excitedly make plans for Van to buy the National Weekly from P. D. Underwood and merge it with his own publication. That afternoon, Linda drops into the office, with Mimi, Van's mother. When they leave, Mimi warns Linda to get rid of "Whitey" for she feels that her beauty is a temptation to any man. Linda, however, scoffs at the suggestion.

INVITATION TO A PARTY

CHAPTER FOUR

Around the Lawrence dinner table that night, sat Whitey, Dave Evans, her sister Edna, Tom, and the two noisy Lawrence children. "Aha!" Dave yelled suddenly, just as Whitey's hand was about to creep into his pocket. His candid gray eyes were lighted up with glee. "Caught red-handed. A pickpocket." "What is it, Dave?" Whitey begged prettily. "You said you had a surprise. Tell me now."

"After the show, I said, 'Patience, woman, patience. If you when I trick me into marrying you, I'll wear the pants in the family.' His sharp, lean face betrayed no hint of the slow ecstasy that flooded him at the mere thought of marriage with wonderful, glamorous Whitey. The telephone shrilled. "Holy Mackerel!" Dave exploded. "I've never known it to fail!" "Hello," Van was saying in Whitey's ear a moment later. "do you remember if the two hundred and forty thousand circulation included mailing to new-advertisers?"

"It's quite a difference. Whitey, I better go over the whole thing again," he said rapidly. "You run down to the office and get me the folder. It's in the safe." "Thanks. You weren't doing anything to-night anyway, were you?" She smiled wryly. "What sort of an answer was there to such a question? Besides, this was a big deal they were trying to put over. 'It's perfectly all right, V. S. I'll start now and I ought to be there within an hour.' Dave was drumming savagely on the table with his fingers when Whitey appeared. "That's great! Just great. If that's happened once, it's happened twenty times. I never saw anybody so inconsiderate. You might be going out for a good time or anything?"

Whitey was sorry about the whole thing, but quite firm. "Now Dave, he's a big man, he's got important things on his mind. I just give me my ticket and I'll come to the theatre as soon as I can and you'll tell me what I've missed."

Grumpily, Dave handed over the pastebord. "I'm not going around with a girl," he growled. "I'm going around with a doctor, except that Sanford gives birth every twenty minutes."

"Miss Wilson?" Simpson asked admitting Whitey to the Sanford reception room a short time later. "Yes."

His arms tightened around her, only to go slack as Howard Brent cut in. "Sickening!" Howard drawled. "Your own husband, May 17?" Van moved to the door. He was met halfway by Simpson. "Miss Wilson's arrived, sir."

"Good," he hurried out. Herbert Clark, one of Linda's guests, was watching her greedily, casually studied the fine prints hung on the wall. Herbert approached her. "I'll never forgive you for coming this late," he said suavely, "to capture the unknown beauty for himself. He held out his arms. "Shall we dance?"

Whitey was disconcerted. "I'm not here to dance." "Now, that's interesting. Just what did you come for?" the door-way. "Come on upstairs, Whitey, Hello, Herb. It'll be quieter up there. Say!" His eyes swept her from head to foot, following the luscious white-satin curves of her body. "Who is this? What a swell dress." Then, briskly and as impersonal as ever, "Why don't you wear that thing in the office?"

"Whitey's laugh was short. They moved toward the stairs. "Hi, kids," Van called to Eve and Joan who were in the act of descending. The two girls stared at each other when Whitey and Van had disappeared. "Oh my. He said his secretary was coming over," Eve breathed. They both started guiltily as they saw Linda. "Have you seen Van?" She called gaily. "Yes. No," the two girls answered together. Eve added uncomfortably, "I saw him a few minutes ago... uh... with Harvey."

"Oh," As Linda approached Simpson, the girls' laughter floated to her ears. Vaguely, she was puzzled. "Simpson, have you seen Mr. Sanford?" "He just went upstairs with Miss Wilson."

"Oh," She glanced quickly after Joan and Eve, then returned to the living room. She was dancing with Harold when Van and Whitey finally made an appearance. "Excuse me won't you Harold?" "Certainly, Lin."

"Good evening, Mrs. Sanford," Whitey said as Linda stepped up. "Hello, Miss Wilson," Linda returned cordially. She saw Whitey's evening dress and looked at Van reproachfully. "Why, Van, you've taken her away from a party. Impulsively, she linked her arm through the other girl's. "You're going to stay right here."

"You've seen a blonde before," Vivian snarled. "I'm beginnin' to wonder." He was not alone in this speculation. As the evening passed, there was not a man in the place who neglected to pay open and assiduous court to Whitey's sparkling eyes and the deft twinkle of her dancing feet. Eve and Joan were adjusting their wraps in Linda's bedroom, yanking and twitching them into place in the usual feminine manner. "It was a lovely party, dear," Eve cooed. "And I think I've discovered your secret with Van. You're not jealous of his... business."

Linda smiled contentedly. "I don't understand the type of woman who treats her husband's business as if it were a bad habit... then spends every cent he makes." "Isn't she sweet?" Eve gushed to Joan. "And what a lovely looking girl Van's secretary is. Most women couldn't afford that. But of course you're so sure of Van. Good night, dear."

Alone, Linda walked to the window and stared out. An odd, acute pang shot through her heart, leaving her with a baffling sense of loneliness. She leaned against the wall, suddenly heavy with fatigue. (It is only the thinnest seed of discord, but Eve has made a good job of planting it in Linda's mind. What doors has this visit of Whitey's opened? Where will they lead? Is she in love with Van? Don't miss to-morrow's dramatic installment.)

HAPPENINGS AS SEEN BY THE CAMERA'S EYE

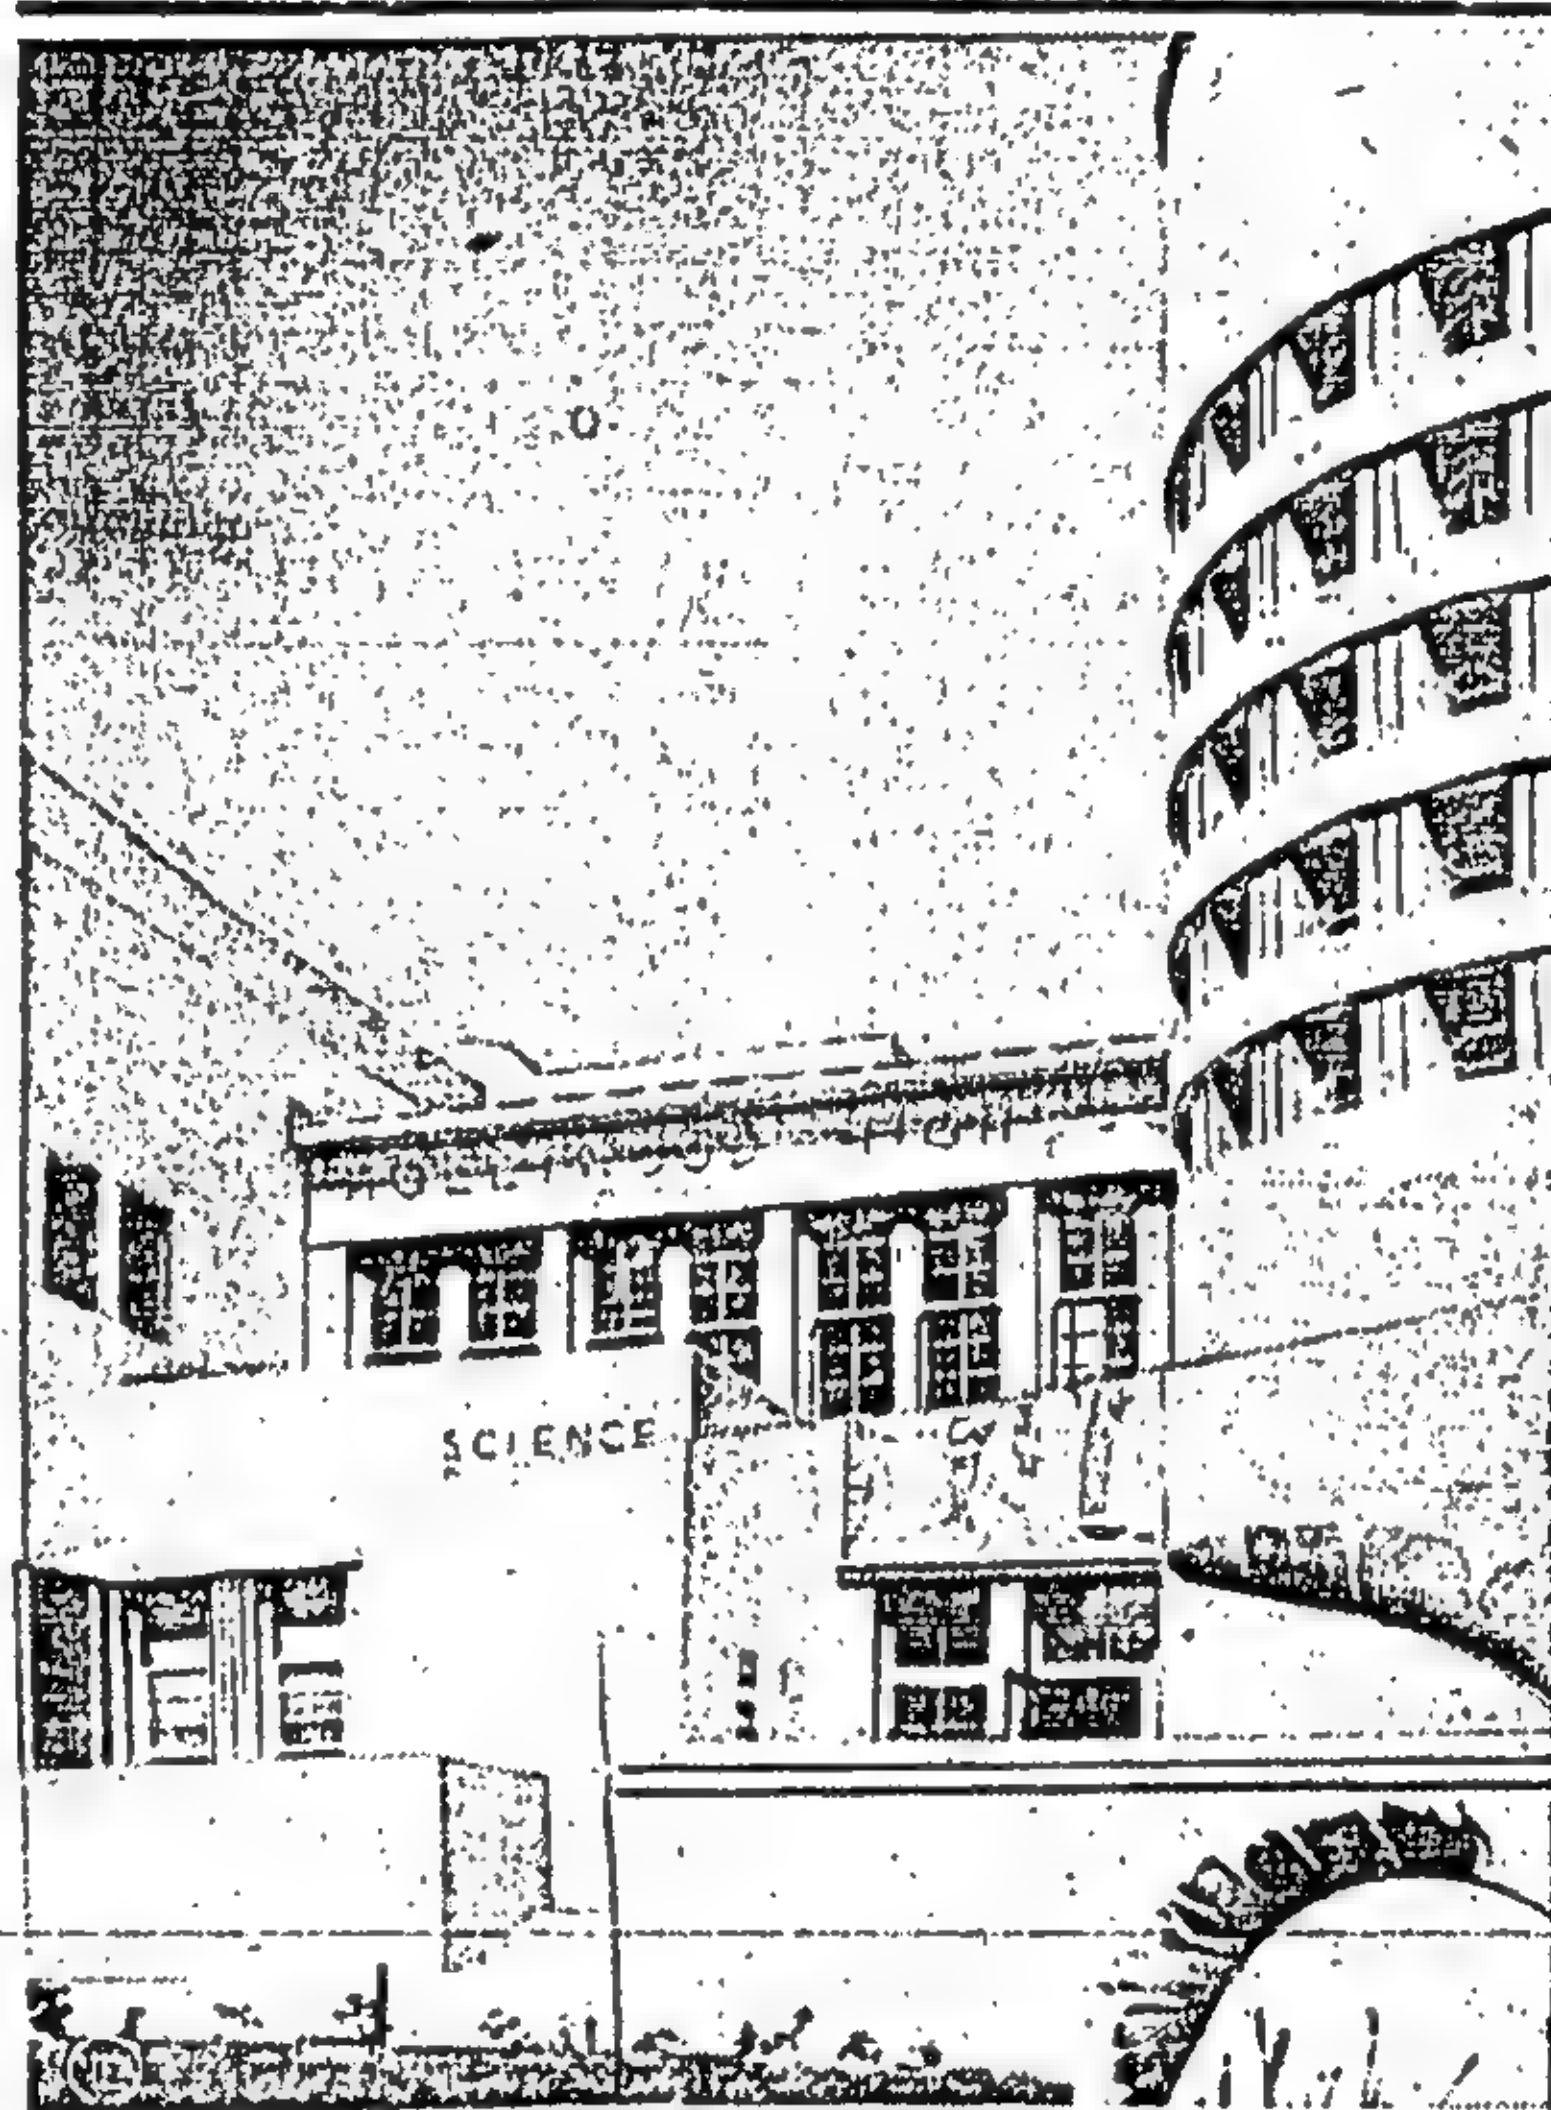

Mr. Eamon de Valera, president of the Irish Free State executive council, recently underwent a successful eye operation at Zurich, Switzerland. Mr. de Valera, who was suffering from a dangerous form of eye strain similar to that which troubled Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the former premier, was warned that unless he submitted to immediate treatment he would go blind. Mr. de Valera (RIGHT) is seen (ABOVE) leaving his London hotel with Mr. Dalanty, high commissioner in London for the Irish Free State.

EARTHQUAKE PROOF AND BEAUTIFUL

Architects and engineers combined beauty with utility in the construction of new school buildings in Southern California, making them virtually earthquakeproof. The striking Hall of Science of the Hollywood High School above was designed to withstand any repetition of tremors such as ruck Southern California in 1933.

"ONE MOMENT, ADMIRAL!" This amusing incident happened just before the official picture of the new Japanese Cabinet was taken in Tokyo. The photographer stepped forward to straighten Admiral Nagano's tie—and was snapped.

Countess Barbara Is Worth £9,000,000

£400,000 In Gifts To Her Two Husbands

New York, May 1.
COUNTRESS HAUGWITZ-REVENTLOW, Barbara Hutton, is worth more than £9,000,000. An income-tax dispute between her attorneys and the Government disclosed this in Washington to-day.

The Queen Mary Earns Her First £25

Southampton, May 1.
The Queen Mary started to make money for her owners for the very first time to-day. Just a little money, of course; about £25
net in shilling pieces.
And in rather an odd way.
But then the relations between the Queen Mary and her owners are rather odd any way.

The Queen Mary is and it isn't a Cunard White Star liner—not yet. She is still in the jealous possession of her Clydebank builders, the firm of John Brown.
No visitors of any kind are allowed —unless the John Brown vigilantes approve of them.

So it was a bit calling to the Cunard White Star folk when the mammoth arrived at Southampton to see shillings and half-crowns rolling up in hundreds, into the pockets of the dock owners—the Southern Railway—when all the time they could have scooped the pool by selling tickets actually to board the liner.

Little pleasure steamers with a couple of hundred shillings on board have been sailing boldly into the Ocean Docks, putting smokily around the vessel, and then steaming back to get another consignment of holiday visitors.

It was too much for the Cunard.
Somebody had a brain wave, and view crew, threw open to public liner Bertha, "the time" the opposite direction is lying on Docks.

From the Berengaria's decks you could get a simply splendid grandstand view—high up, you know, not one of these neck-twisting views that you get from water level—of the Queen Mary.

That is as near the Queen Mary (about a hundred yards) as the Cunard White Star can get their paying guests.
On Friday the great liner goes to sea for her trials.

It was stated that she owned £6,400,000 tax exempt securities,
£1,800,000 partially exempt securities, and £600,000 in covenant bonds, which are also partially exempt from tax.
Records showed, it was stated,
that she gave her first husband, Prince Alexis Mdivani, £200,000, and her present husband, the count, £200,000.

MISSING FOR 35 YEARS

Famous Crook Bdeived To Have Been Taced

Budapest, May 2.
AN old story of a crook who has been legend for thirty-five years has been received during the past few days.

The Ministry of Home Affairs has been informed that the famous Keeskemethy is living in America under a false name, and that under a false name, and that rumour to Keeskemethy had been murdered by a friend, and another hour with a detective as murderer were given point by the sudden explained wealth of these persons.

It was at the end of 1901 that Keeskemethy roused the Hungarian police by the theft of five hundred and eighty-eight thousand crowns and the tax money belonging to the city of Budapest, a considerable sum at that time, writes a Morning Post correspondent.

Keeskemethy was twenty-one, a great patriot and friend of many students, a good friend of many members of the Opposition who had used their influence to procure him a position in the city tax offices.
The theft was admittedly committed.
Keeskemethy and a subordinate drove to the town hall with the tax money, but stopped on the way to deliver a message. While the subordinate was absent from the carriage Keeskemethy opened the bag and abstracted the money, sending the unsuspecting subordinate into the town hall with the almost empty bag alone, on the pretext that he himself must post a letter.

POLICE BAFLED
The efforts of the Hungarian and international police to find the thief were fruitless. Keeskemethy began to assume a legendary immunity. He was reported to have been seen in different parts of Europe.
Some weeks after the crime a letter purporting to be from Keeskemethy came from New York, saying that he had fled to America, and that he thousand crowns in exchange for his freedom from punishment.
The detectives sent on his track led to find him,

and a year later another letter came from Cincinnati; but Keeskemethy remained uncaught.
A rumour to Keeskemethy had been murdered by a friend, and
another hour with a detective as
murderer were given point by the sudden explained wealth of these persons.

TEN YEARS LATER
Ten years later, however, Keeske-methy was seen on a South African train by a Hungarian, who learned that the thief was a rich mine-owner. It was on he was seen in Brazil, and he was a wealthy farmer, fresh searches failed to trace him.

The news of Keeskemethy claimed to be the proprietor of a great mine in San Francisco, and though it was a Hungarian origin, was seen that years earlier wandered the towns of America a foreigner. The solution of mystery is awaited with keen interest.
The what against Keeskemethy elapsed 1907, so that no prosecution could be placed. According to private sources, however, the city of Budapest demand compensation for the theft, though the steps would entail vast expenses.

NO SUE TO (SUMMER) TIME
London, Apr. 26.
Mr. Dr. Diplock, a bachelor, retired business, who has just died aged 80, refused to alter the clocks at home, or his watch, when summer time began.
He said his life according to the

Her Romance Ended: She Made A Vow

MISS CLARA JENKINS was a beautiful brunette of Caerlon, Mon., when she fell madly in love—but she was a cripple, and had to use crutches.
Her parents, who kept a little sweet shop in Cross-street, opposed her romance.

She made a vow:—
"I will never put a hat on again."

She meant she would never again leave that little sweet shop.
She kept that vow for more than forty years. Last month she died, aged seventy-two.

BLUM'S POLICY OUTLINE

FRENCH LEADER'S PROMISES

BACKS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, May 10.
M. Leon Blum, the Socialist leader and probably the next Prime Minister of France, in his speech to the Socialist Congress to-night, affirmed his intention of standing by the League of Nations and the ideals represented by that institution.

He said he was opposed to devaluation and promised to initiate a vast, methodical scheme of national public works.—Reuter.

Paris, May 10.
A speech which will have an important bearing on the Government's future policy was delivered by M. Leon Blum to the Socialist Congress to-night.

There was much damage to be repaired and many wounds to be dressed, he said, but his object was to re-establish confidence in Europe, give back to the League material and moral cohesion, and recreate international solidarity, ideas of mutual assistance and disarmament.

The financial problems were important but less grave than those of war, peace, unemployment and low wages.

M. Blum added that he had been urged to take power immediately, but declined.—Reuter.

POLICY OUTLINED

Paris, May 10.
M. Leon Blum, who will probably be the next Prime Minister of France, has outlined his policy.

He plans a vast, methodical scheme of national public works, healthy finance and stable budget.

Regarding the future of the franc, M. Blum said that speculators for a long time past had been selling short awaiting the day they themselves had fixed for devaluation. To that he was "resolutely opposed," he said.

When he announced these plans to the Socialist Congress to-night, he was greeted with a thunderous ovation, which was repeated when he affirmed his intention of securing victory and liberty over Fascism.

"Not only the fate of our party is at stake, but the fate of the Republic," M. Blum warned.—Reuter.

FOUR POINTS

Paris, May 11.
M. Leon Blum, France's "Red Dictator," announced last night a four point foreign policy, which he will follow until the 1940 elections.

First, he will adhere to the League of Nations; second, he will strive to consolidate European peace; third, he will promote mutual assistance pacts; and fourthly, he will seek for progressive disarmament.

This man, who engineered the Popular Front, will be the power behind France's Red Cabinet, which will take office in June 2.

Speaking at the National Socialist Council last night, he said:

"We must consolidate the country against Fascist attacks; we must put the republican spirit into all high administrative offices and we must deprive the Fascists of all secret means of propaganda."

Outlining his political and financial programme, in general terms, M. Blum said he was opposed to devaluation, and he charged speculators with promoting devaluation against the country's interests. The establishment of sound finance would be one of the outstanding phases of his programme, he promised.—United Press.

British Peer Passes

BARON ALDENHAM WAS FORMER M.P.

London, May 10.
The death has occurred of Baron Aldenham, former Conservative M.P. for the City of London, which seat he held from 1902 to 1906. He was elected in the latter year, but retired in favour of the late Mr. A. J. Balfour.

The deceased, who was born at Naples in 1846, was a partner in Antony Gibbs and Sons, merchants, of London. He was the second holder of the title, which was created in 1890, and succeeded his father in 1907. He owned about 5,000 acres of land.

The new Baron is the Hon. Gerald H.B. Gibbs, who is 56 years of age and is also a partner in Antony Gibbs and Sons.—Reuter.

ANNEXATION DECREE SEEN AS THREAT TO BRITAIN'S EMPIRE

LONDON PRESS ATTACKS ITALIAN ACTION

SAVOURS OF INTOXICATION OF VICTORY, SAYS "POST"

(SPECIAL TO "TELEGRAPH")

London, May 11.
Signor Benito Mussolini's annexation of Ethiopia is regarded as a further blow against the British Empire, in addition to climaxing the League of Nations' failure to settle the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

As a result it is expected that entrenchment of British strength along the route to India and in Africa will prevent the Empire from participating actively in Continental problems, including Germany's reoccupation of the Rhineland.

Well informed quarters consider Signor Mussolini's promise to respect British interests in Lake Tsana a minor matter, in view of the set-back to British prestige and the threat to British security in Africa resulting from the annexation of Ethiopia.

Moreover, it is considered likely that Italy's action will cause Germany to revise her campaign to regain her African colonies. However, officials in Berlin decline to comment in accordance with Germany's strict attitude of neutrality in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.—United Press.

London Comment

London, May 11.
Signor Mussolini's proclamation of the annexation of Ethiopia is an act savouring of intoxication of victory rather than statesmanship," says the Morning Post in an editorial to-day.

The Italian Dictator has thrown to the winds the final opportunity for moderation and has chosen to administer to the signatories of the 1919 Treaty, the Kellogg-Brandt Pact and the League of Nations Covenant a calculated and superfluous affront, this newspaper declares.

The Daily Telegraph maintains that the League of Nations cannot be dismissed by a gesture from Rome.

The future and destiny of Ethiopia can only be determined when a settlement is ratified by the Nations, it says.

However, the Daily Mail insists there is every reason why "our Government should recognise the annexation in an ungrudging spirit."

The Daily Herald views the proclamation as a final challenge to the League and a final warning that Mussolini's ambition is still unslaked.

The New Chronicle asserts his action reveals as a lightning flash to the world the place "to which we are travelling, wherein he takes who has the power."

The Onion hopes of escape, adds the paper, lies in the reassertion, by action, of the principles which Mussolini has defied.

The Times offers no editorial comment in the matter of the annexation.—Reuter.

H.K. PLANS FOR CORONATION

WEEK'S FESTIVITIES PROBABLE

Tentative plans for Hongkong's celebration of the Coronation of King Edward VIII of England indicate that this event will be marked with the most lavish display of loyalty in the history of this Colony.

EMPEROR SUFFERS COLLAPSE

GAS POISONING MAY BE CAUSE

HEARS ROME'S PROCLAMATION

(Special To "Telegraph")

Jerusalem, May 11.
Emperor Haile Selassie is reported to have suffered a nervous collapse. The Emperor arose at his customary early hour to-day and strolled in the grounds of the King David Hotel, accompanied by his family.

After prayers in the Ethiopian Church he returned to his suite and was then taken ill. This was at breakfast time.

The High Commissioner, Lieut. General Sir Arthur Wauchop, sent his personal physician to attend the Emperor, and the diagnosis of the case was "nervous collapse."

However, it is reported unconfirmably that physicians found the Emperor suffering from the effects of poison gas, recalling that he was allegedly treated for gas poisoning when he returned to Addis Ababa from the front.

A radio was installed in the Emperor's suite last night to enable the Negus to listen to Signor Benito Mussolini's proclamation of annexation of Ethiopia. It is reported that the Negus was unable to restrain his emotions and turned off the radio in the middle of II Duce's speech.

Immediately prior to his collapse.

GENEVA'S FORECAST

Geneva, May 10.

Such a decision would imply refusal by the League of Nations to recognize Italy's claim to the rights of the sovereign state in Ethiopia and would involve the continuance of sanctions.—Reuter.

Reds Hold Pirates Scoreless

ST. LOUIS STILL IN TROUBLE

CAN'T ELUDE "JINX"

New York, May 10.
Derringer, the Cincinnati pitching star, shocked the Pittsburgh Pirates to-day when he allowed only three hits. His mates scored six times on ten hits. Herman and Myers pounding out home runs.

The New York Giants beat Philadelphia six to two at New York and the Boston Braves were extended to twelve innings to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, five to four.

Giants knocked out twelve hits and the Phillies ten. The Braves scored on thirteen blows and the Dodgers had twelve. Errors featured this encounter, the winners having five and the losers four.

The Cardinals beat the Chicago Cubs, five to one, hitting seven to three. Both teams had an error.

The New York Yankees scored seven times on as many hits, Dickey and Dimaggio hitting homers, when they met and trounced the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Athletics scored twice on four drives, and committed two errors. The match scheduled for Chicago, between the White Sox and St. Louis Browns, was postponed on account of rain. The Browns did not get a chance to tackle their bad luck again.

They have not won since April 22, when they created a furore by trimming the champions, the Detroit Tigers, in most impressive style. Since then, in spite of good hitting, they have just missed success a half a dozen times. Their next will be their thirteenth game since they beat Detroit, and they are out to crack their "jinx."

Washington blanked Boston, scoring four runs, and Newsom's pitching allowed the Red Sox only six scattered hits. Kuhl's homer was one of the nine safeties the Senators obtained. Boston had two errors.

Owen hit two homers and Simmons one when Detroit played Cleveland, but these, with the sixteen hits the Tigers tallied, were not sufficient to beat the Indians, who scored nine men on fifteen hits. Detroit committed three errors.—Reuter.

FLYING FOR NEW RECORD

AMY MOLLISON OFF FROM CAPETOWN

MAPS ROUTE FOR TRIP

Capetown, May 10.
Mrs. Amy Mollison, who has just broken the record for the flight from London to the Cape, has started on her return journey, seeking a new time for the homeward hop.

She started at 10.10 p.m. She will fly along the East Coast route and expects to reach her destination on Wednesday at 11 p.m. She would thus clip hours from the record set by Jimmy Hogg, the R.A.F. officer.

Mrs. Mollison had her plans completed yesterday and announced last night that she intended hopping off this evening.

Her route will carry her close to the theatre of war in Ethiopia, her first stopping place will be Birkenhead, and thereafter she intends fueling and resting at Nairobi, in Kenya Colony, Cairo and Malta. Then she will attempt one long, last leg to London.—Reuter and Reuter Special.

MUDDLED U.S. OUTLOOK

EXPERIMENT LIKELY IN TAX BILL

Washington, May 9.
The tax outlook is muddled and the final Bill will probably retain corporation income taxes at higher rates plus an immediate experimental tax on undistributed corporation earnings.

A French gold embargo is expected by Washington officials followed by devaluation.

The latest American Institute of Public Opinion survey of Presidential electoral votes indicates that the Democrats will have 248, Republicans 72, and doubtful 21. The successful candidate requires 260.—Swan, Culbertson and Fritz.

CANTON'S WAR ON SMUGGLER

JAPANESE GOODS POURING IN

REVENUES DECLINE

Canton, May 11.
The steady increase of smuggling in Canton is resulting in a further decline of Customs revenue and is causing considerable concern to the local authorities.

The chief goods being smuggled into this port are Formosan rice and Japanese piece goods, which are flooding the market and are being sold at extraordinarily low prices.

Quantities arrive daily. In Yang Hong, the famous piece-goods street many Japanese goods are on display and the public are buying them under the impression that they are either Chinese or Russian products.

Paper, particularly, old foreign newspapers (for wrapping purposes), is being smuggled into the city in large quantities through the concession in Shamone.

The authorities recently raided several important headquarters of smugglers and made a large number of arrests. Efforts are being continued to curb plots to evade taxation.—Reuter.

DELEGATE FROM NANKING

Shanghai, May 11.
The Chinese press states that Mr. H. O. Tong, Customs Superintendent, is proceeding to Canton on Wednesday, travelling on the President Jackson, to confer with the South-West leaders on plans for suppressing smuggling in South China.

It is also reported that the Finance Ministry is shortly establishing an Anti-Smuggling Bureau in order to control the entire anti-smuggling activities throughout the nation.—Reuter.

Philippine Railway To Be Sold

CANNOT REDEEM ITS MORTGAGE BONDS

GOVERNMENT IN MARKET

New York, May 10.
Mr. J. S. Pades, President of the Philippine Railway, has sent a letter to the Secretary and shareholders, predicting that they would be unable to pay the outstanding $8,549,000 of first mortgage four per cent bonds when they mature on July 1, 1937.

He outlined a plan by which the Government would buy a substantial amount of the bonds, placing the entire railroad in the hands of the Philippine Commonwealth.

The following are the terms: First, payment before January 1, 1937 of $350 for each $1,000 of bonds, not including coupons maturing on January 1 and July 1, 1937; secondly, payment of the full face amount of each such coupon at or before maturity; thirdly, payment of one dollar for each share of stock; fourthly, to pay the company $50,000 to provide for the expenses in connection with the sale.

It is urged that prompt deposit of securities should be made, because the Philippine Assembly meets in June, and officers of the Company have been informed that the Commonwealth is prepared to consider purchase of a substantial amount of bonds and capital stock, provided they are able to purchase it at one time.

"Substantially more than a majority" are said to have already promised substantial deposits. Bonds are quoted at present at $800 in New York.—United Press.

JAPANESE OIL SCHEME

COAL LIQUEFACTION PLANT

Dalren, May 11.
The immediate construction of an experimental coal liquefaction plant at Fushun, capable of producing 20,000 tons of oil annually, has been decided upon at a conference of South Manchurian Railway officials. It is planned to construct a factory in August capable ultimately of supplying the entire oil demands of the Japanese nation.—Reuter.

What can be the matter?

When your good little son suddenly becomes cross, contrary, tearful... something more than his disposition is to blame.

Probably he is constipated... he needs a laxative. But be sure to give him a laxative suited to a child's sensitive system. Give him Castoria—the laxative made especially for children—from babyhood to eleven years.

In 5,000,000 American homes Castoria is the standby when a child is out of sorts. Mothers depend upon it because it is thorough and gentle... will never cause griping pain or upset stomach like some of the harsh adult laxatives.

And children love Castoria's pleasant taste. They take it gladly.

Romance Began At Dances In Vienna, She Says

By A Special Representative

Vienna, April 28.

MISS MARIE THERESE WOOD, a pretty, blonde English girl whose home is in Vienna, has become engaged to Prince Ernst von Hohenberg, second son of Austria's tragic Archduke Franz Ferdinand, whose murder at Sarajevo led to the world war.

She is twenty-five. The prince is thirty-one. I spoke to a breathlessly happy girl to-day at the smart flat in Vienna's Mayfair, where she lives with her parents, Captain and Mrs. Jervis Wood.

She is their only child. She was giving a tea party to her girl friends, telling them all about her engagement.

"Yes," she said to me, "it is true, and I am terribly happy. We shall be married in Vienna."

"We don't yet know when. Probably in May—or perhaps I had better say we are keeping it a secret. In the same way, we are not telling where we are going to spend our honeymoon."

"The prince and I have known each other fairly well for some time. I live in Vienna, and we have met at many dances and other social events. We only decided to get married a fortnight ago. We tried to keep it quiet."

DIAMONDS, RUBIES

"The prince has given me an engagement ring consisting of two diamonds set in rubies."

And the future princess returned to her simple English tea. The prince was shy when I spoke to him. He is more at home stage.

He admitted the engagement, and added: "But please don't make too much fuss about it. We shall live on my estates in Austria after our marriage."

Miss Wood, who is known to her friends as "Malsie," is a first-class golfer, painter, rider, and is typically English.

Her father Captain Wood, is an African explorer and big-game hunter. He has just returned from an expedition to Tanganyika.

Miss Wood's mother is the former Hungarian Countess Lonyay. Before the war Captain Wood was military attaché at the British Embassy in Vienna. After the war he settled down there.

GOOD SPORTSMAN

He said: "My wife and I are very happy that our daughter is marrying a man like the prince. He is a good sportsman and huntsman. I know him well."

The marriage will be a Roman Catholic ceremony. Both the prince and Miss Wood are Roman Catholics. By her marriage Miss Wood will become a member of the Hapsburg family.

Prince Hohenberg is a grand-nephew of the Emperor Franz Josef, who, by declaring war on Serbia in 1914, precipitated the world war.

If his father, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, had not made a momentary marriage with the Countess Chotek, Prince Hohenberg would be in direct line of succession, after his elder brother, to the Austrian throne.

After her marriage, Countess Chotek was made the Duchess of Hohenberg.

PREDICTION THAT THE KING WILL LIVE TO BE 70

ASTROLOGERS held a conference—believed to be the first in Britain—at Harrogate last month, and before it opened, Mr. H. H. Burnell, of Pool (Yorks), the organiser, declared in an interview that no prophecies would be made. "Prophecies are all clap-trap," he is reported as saying.

But across tea-tables in the sedate surroundings of the conference hall the assembly of earnest men and women—mostly women—managed to make just a few predictions, including:

King Edward will live to a good old age.

Japan has trouble times ahead. There will be no European war as far as Germany is concerned with one or more foreign countries, probably neighbours.

Trouble is coming to Mussolini. Triumph for pacific negotiations so far as Germany is concerned.

"EXACT SCIENCE" Astrology is an exact mathematical science, declared Mrs. J. Norman Rhodes, treasurer of the Astrological Lodge of London.

Then by the aid of constellations she proceeded to demonstrate just why the London Naval Conference was fated to fail from the day it began; how Britain will lead Europe through difficult times to peace and how Japan is in for trouble.

In other corners of the room South Africa was seceding from the British Empire; Hitler's personal attack was rising; King Edward was "being assured" of celebrating his seventieth birthday and a Bolshevik rising was foreshadowed in the United States six years hence.

BULLOCK WITH ITS HEART IN ITS MOUTH

A bullock which literally "had its heart in its mouth" has just been killed at a slaughter yard at Portarlington, Victoria, Australia.

VALLEE IN FIGHT WITH PRODUCER

New York, Apr. 30. RUDY VALLEE, the world's first crooner, has been banned from George White's "Scandals."

When the curtain fell last night, White and Vallee started to fight. Stage hands intervened and stopped the bout.

White alleges that Vallee called him an "ungentlemanly name."

Vallee and White have been associated over a long period as star and producer.

MILLIONS FOR RUSSIAN TEACHERS

Moscow, May 1.

Stalin, the Soviet leader, to-day announced a £40,000,000 Easter present to school teachers and other school employees, whose salaries are to be raised on a graduated scale according to experience and qualifications.

The sum earmarked for this purpose brings Russia's education budget for the current year to £480,000,000.

The average increase will be about 15 per cent, which will bring the salaries of educational directors in cities to about £24 a month, and of teachers in villages to about £6 a month.

Wages of teachers in remote districts will be raised by 50 per cent, and those teaching deficient children by 25 per cent.—United Press.

SALESMAN SAM

Getting Up In The World

M. MAURICE PRIVAT, the famous French author, began to read the message of the stars three years ago. To-day he is the foremost astrologer of France. He foretold, among other sensational events: Assassination of M. Doumer, President of the French Republic; Tragic death of King Albert of the Belgians; Death of M. Barthou, French Foreign Minister who was assassinated with King Alexander of Jugoslavia at Marseilles. Special articles by M. Privat are to be published in the Hongkong Telegraph. The first—a horoscope of King Edward VIII.—is in this page.

FRANCE'S FOREMOST ASTROLOGER CASTS

KING EDWARD VIII'S HOROSCOPE

WHEN King Edward was born the heavens were magnificently propitious and almost without dissonance, which is very rare. Aquarius was rising in the east, announcing the coming of a modern prince, while Mid-Heaven in the sign of Sagittarius put him into perfect harmony with his people.

It is the sign of Sagittarius which exercises the greatest influence on Great Britain, and not, as many astrologers hold, this great nation has a love of tradition, a passion for sports and horses, turns naturally to religion and missionary work, is attracted by travel, and loves orderliness.

Prosperity
With Sagittarius in Mid-Heaven at the time of his birth, King Edward's reign will remain surely bound up with prosperity and a national era of magnificence.

With the Ascendant in Aquarius, the subject has the faculty of viewing a problem from all angles, is ingenious in resource, susceptible to kindness, practical and inventive, feels the need to be in tune with Nature, and has a love of apples, preferably uncooked.

He is patient, but his patience can be tried, and then his will is manifested imperiously.

Memory
The Sun being in Cancer at the time of his birth, King Edward has a retentive and widespread memory, and gets beneath the surface of men and things. He is imaginative, intuitive, and likes changes of scene. Often his air will be detached. At times he is gently mocking, and he appreciates humour. Remembrance is a cult with him.

HIS Majesty's slim figure is indicated by the position of Cancer. He would have derived greater height from Aquarius but for a quadrant of Pluto in the Ascendant and a slight quadrant of Uranus in the degree which was rising from the horizon.

Popularity
Immense personal popularity is shown, the Moon being in the Ascendant and almost in reception with Venus, which gives an invincible and sublime love of the people. It is also the Fourth House, with three planets—Pluto, Neptune and Jupiter—showing a splendid heredity and promising even greater riches in latter years, as well as limitless renown and incomparable power.

The position of Venus in the Third House shows perfectly harmonious relationship of the subject with his brothers and sisters. The position of Mercury indicates the gift of diplomacy exercised with a force and a charm that are irresistible.

Saturn in the Eighth House is a most excellent assurance of longevity, and this is not the only one. Uranus is in the Ninth and proves a desire to bring about reforms by using the lessons of the past to fertilise the future.

Here, too, it is indicated that once the King has made a decision he will see it is carried out.

MARS is in its sign Aries, which indicates a wealth of virtues, courage, and a love of sport and risk.

The position of Jupiter in the celestial sphere when His Majesty was born gives him a well ordered ambition, imagination and prestige, and solicitude for youth.

Neptune
There is nothing more certain than that the new King will perform his duties with fascinating mastery, and that his love of peace will be exercised constantly with beneficent results.

Had Edward the Eighth not been royal it would have been permissible to point out that plane has an element of danger for him through the sesquiquadrate of Mars and Uranus and the quincunx of Neptune to Uranus. Although these aspects are corrected—the second notably by the conjunction of Venus and Jupiter, which is in sextile with Venus—caution is advisable, although the danger is not serious.

By Maurice Privat

The Sun
THE Sun in the Fifth House shows a love of popular amusements and a pleasure in mingling with crowds. Turf successes are clearly indicated, and the royal colours will be victorious twice at the same meeting on more than one occasion.

He Will Wed
Will King Edward marry? The heavens show that he will, and that before very long a queen worthy of him will be crowned, and that the royal union will be blessed by several beautiful children. Edward the Eighth's queen will share his tasks and his glory.

His Majesty is clearly shown to be unalterably drawn towards France, and his Seventh House denotes that he will continue to foster the Entente Cordiale founded by his august grandfather. He is also shown to be interested in Germany's progress and evolution.

Taste
Let us resume what the aspects give:

Taste, distinction, and a sense of the beautiful;
A tender solicitude for his mother; from those around him;
A love of animals, especially small animals;
Fearlessness, activity, initiative, need to get quick results of anything undertaken; impulsiveness;
Determination in face of obstacles;
Authority, energy, battles hard fought and won;
Continuous effort, coolness, and an eloquence which produces instant effect; ability to govern, the art of expressing his exact thoughts;
A long life;
An intense love of justice and fairness;
Interest in new developments and new inventions;
Love of travel and adventure;
Brilliant close of his reign.

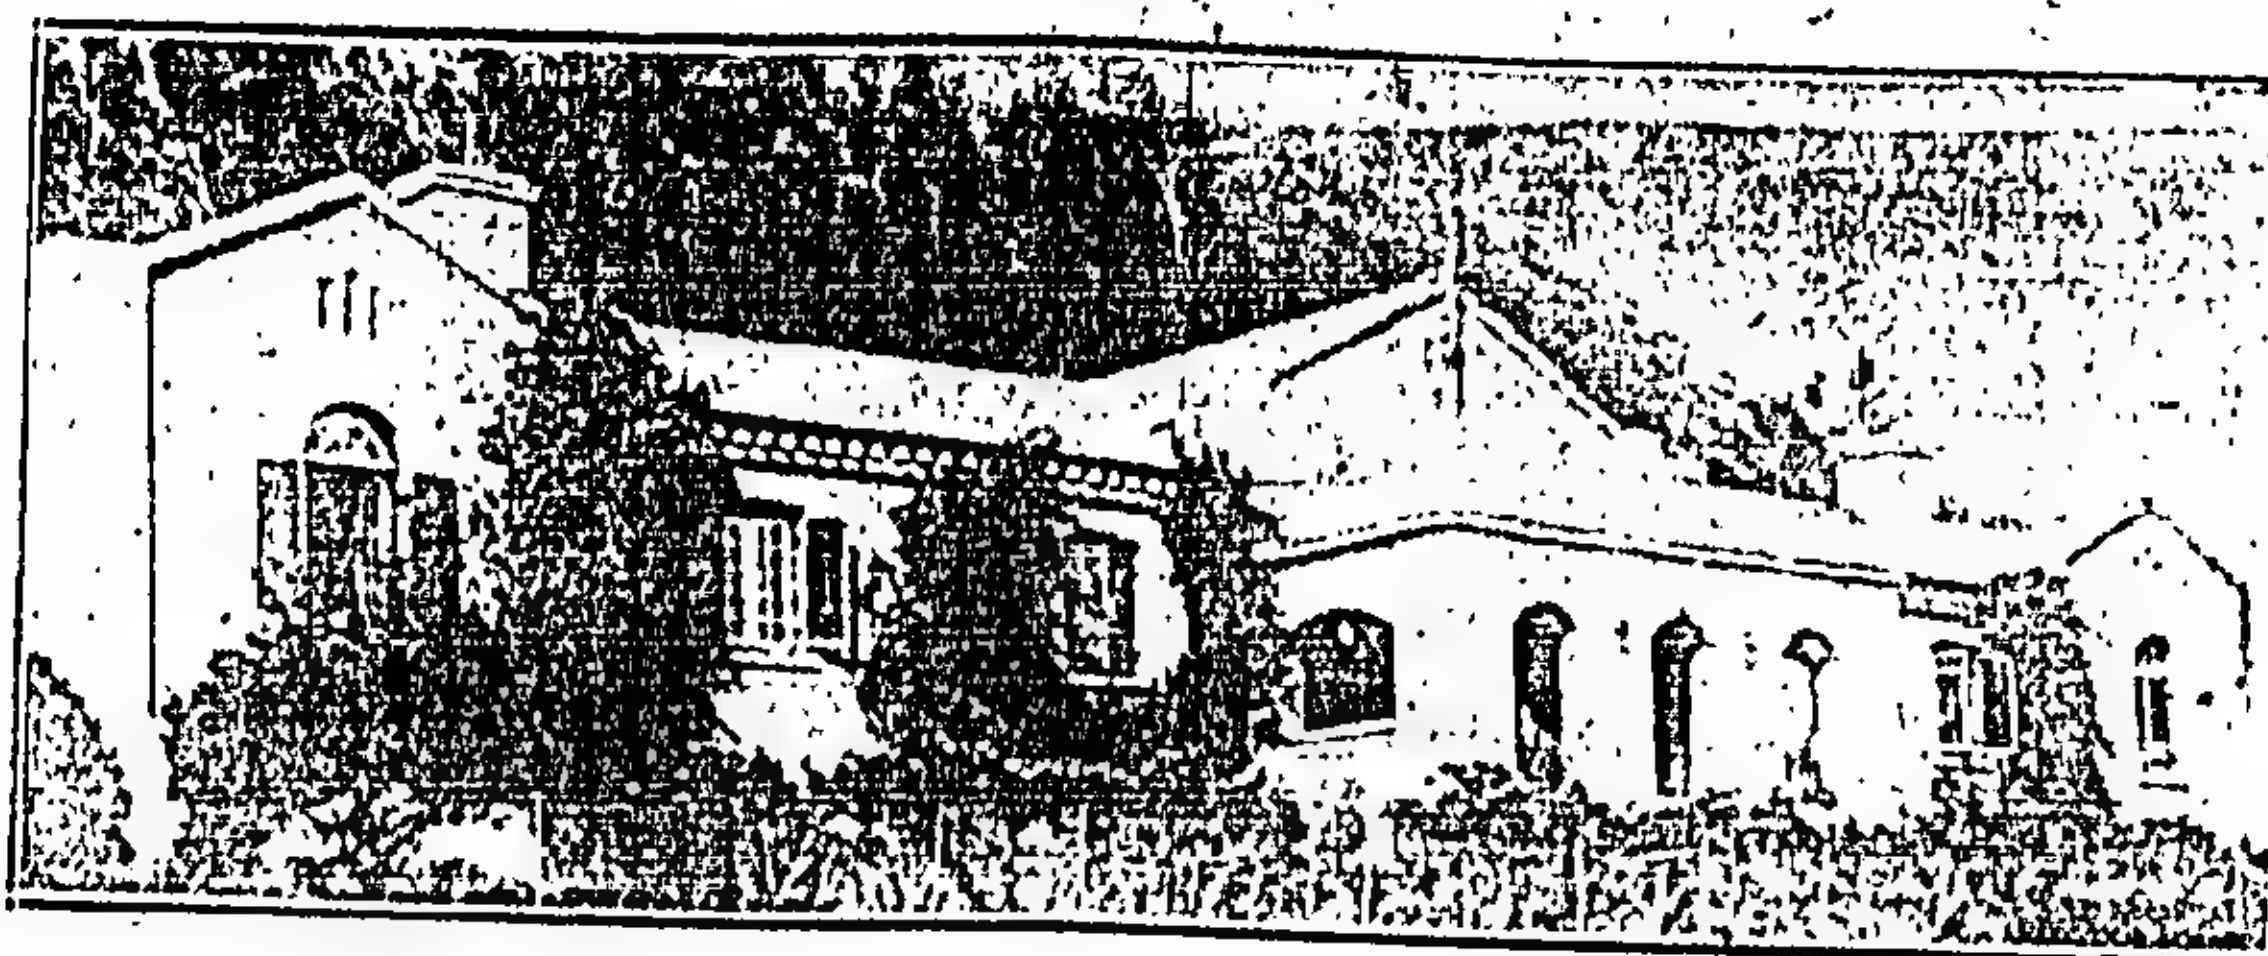

Great Destiny
THERE is an exceptional combination of felicitous signs in the horoscope of King Edward. The conjunction of the three planets Pluto, Neptune, and Jupiter in Gemini in the Fourth House occurs only at very rare intervals.

The benefactions of the Fourth House come not in youth but in the later stages of life, and there is nothing in the aspects of the heavens at the time of His Majesty's birth that can interfere with his great destiny.

Apart from the conjunction of the planets Pluto, Neptune, and Jupiter, there is another factor which is decisive: Saturn in the Eighth House is in harmonious triplicity with the triple conjunction and renews that the King will exert the full force of his character and power in the years to come.

He came to the throne when Jupiter, Venus, and the Moon were in conjunction in mid-heaven, and this was the crowning of the promise of the heavens at his birth.

WHERE ADDIS ABABA WHITES WERE PROTECTED

With the Emperor of Abyssinia a refugee, and Addis Ababa in the hands of the Italians, the war in Ethiopia is virtually at an end. HATRY'S COUSIN FAILS AS PUBLICAN

MR. R. EASTWOOD, member of Paddington Borough Council, cousin of Clarence Hatry, and proprietor of the Elephant and Castle Hotel, Harrow-road, Paddington, has executed a deed of assignment in favour of Mr. C. B. Sebire, chartered accountant, of Moor-gate, E.C.4, in order to protect his assets.

The business is at present being carried on by the trustee. At a meeting of Mr. Eastwood's creditors held at the Institute of Chartered Accountants a statement of affairs was submitted disclosing gross liabilities of £22,894, of which £6,059 was expected to rank for dividend.

The deficiency, after allowing for secured creditors' and assets, was stated to be £5,208.

Mr. Sebire said that Mr. Eastwood had no previous experience of the hotel trade, and started on capital borrowed from his mother, the late Mrs. Eiser.

Mrs. Eiser was a sister of Clarence Hatry's mother.

CABARET SHOWS
"The debtor," Mr. Sebire continued, "having no experience, was compelled to rely on assistants. At the beginning there was extravagant expenditure."

Imperial Airways Increase Capital

Preparations are being made for a new issue of capital on behalf of Imperial Airways. It is expected that the issue will be a large one—probably approaching £2,000,000.

The money is required for the purchase of new flying boats for the overseas services, and also for landing equipment in the Azores and Bermuda in connection with the cross-Atlantic services.

The present capital of the company is £649,000 in Ordinary shares. The last balance-sheet showed cash amounting to £455,000, and Government securities £262,000.

The company has been able to show, in recent years, a continuous expansion of business.

CAT'S 100-MILE WALK

London, April 26.
After three weeks' absence a black Persian cat has returned to its former home at Bourne-mouth from Eastbourne, a distance of more than 100 miles.

The cat's owners recently moved from Bourne-mouth to Eastbourne by rail and took the cat with them in a closed hamper.

Three weeks after the removal it walked into the house next door to its former home in good physical condition. When the last report was issued, in October, the company had under construction, or on order, twenty-nine flying boats and twelve land 'planes. This compared with a fleet of forty-two aircraft actually in operation at that date.

Developing Empire Air Lines
These large orders had been placed with the knowledge and consent of the Government, following the decision that Imperial Airways was to be the instrument for developing the existing Empire air lines.

Sir Eric Geddes told shareholders at the annual meeting that further capital would be required this year to carry these important developments into effect.

Details were to be announced when the agreement with the Government had been completed.

FOUR BRAVE MEN FROM THE EAST
5,000 MILES TO ATTEND KING-EMPEROR

FOUR tall, bearded men are looking to-day on London with the eyes of the East. All are Sikhs, members of a fighting race, and they have travelled 5,000 miles from the blazing heat of India to stand by the throne of the King-Emperor in London as his Indian orderly officers.

In a house in St. George's Road, Victoria, tailors and boot-makers fitted them for the splendid uniforms they will wear when they attend the King.

Subadar Ishar Singh, youngest of the four, holds the V.C. He is the only one of the party who has visited London before—when he attended the V.C. dinner in 1929.

SHY HERO
But he is shy about his exploits. He smiles and will not speak when they are mentioned.

Major E. N. Goddard, of the 12th Frontier Regiment, himself a veteran in North-West Frontier fighting, told how Ishar Singh, with two other men, kept a horde of tribesmen at bay.

"He was one of a convoy," Major Goddard explained. "Convoys are constantly passing up and down to the North-West Frontier posts with supplies and sick men."

"Tribesmen were waiting in the mountains on either side of this convoy. There was fierce fighting, and he was badly wounded. He stuck to his Lewis gun, and eventually drove the enemy off. The convoy got through."

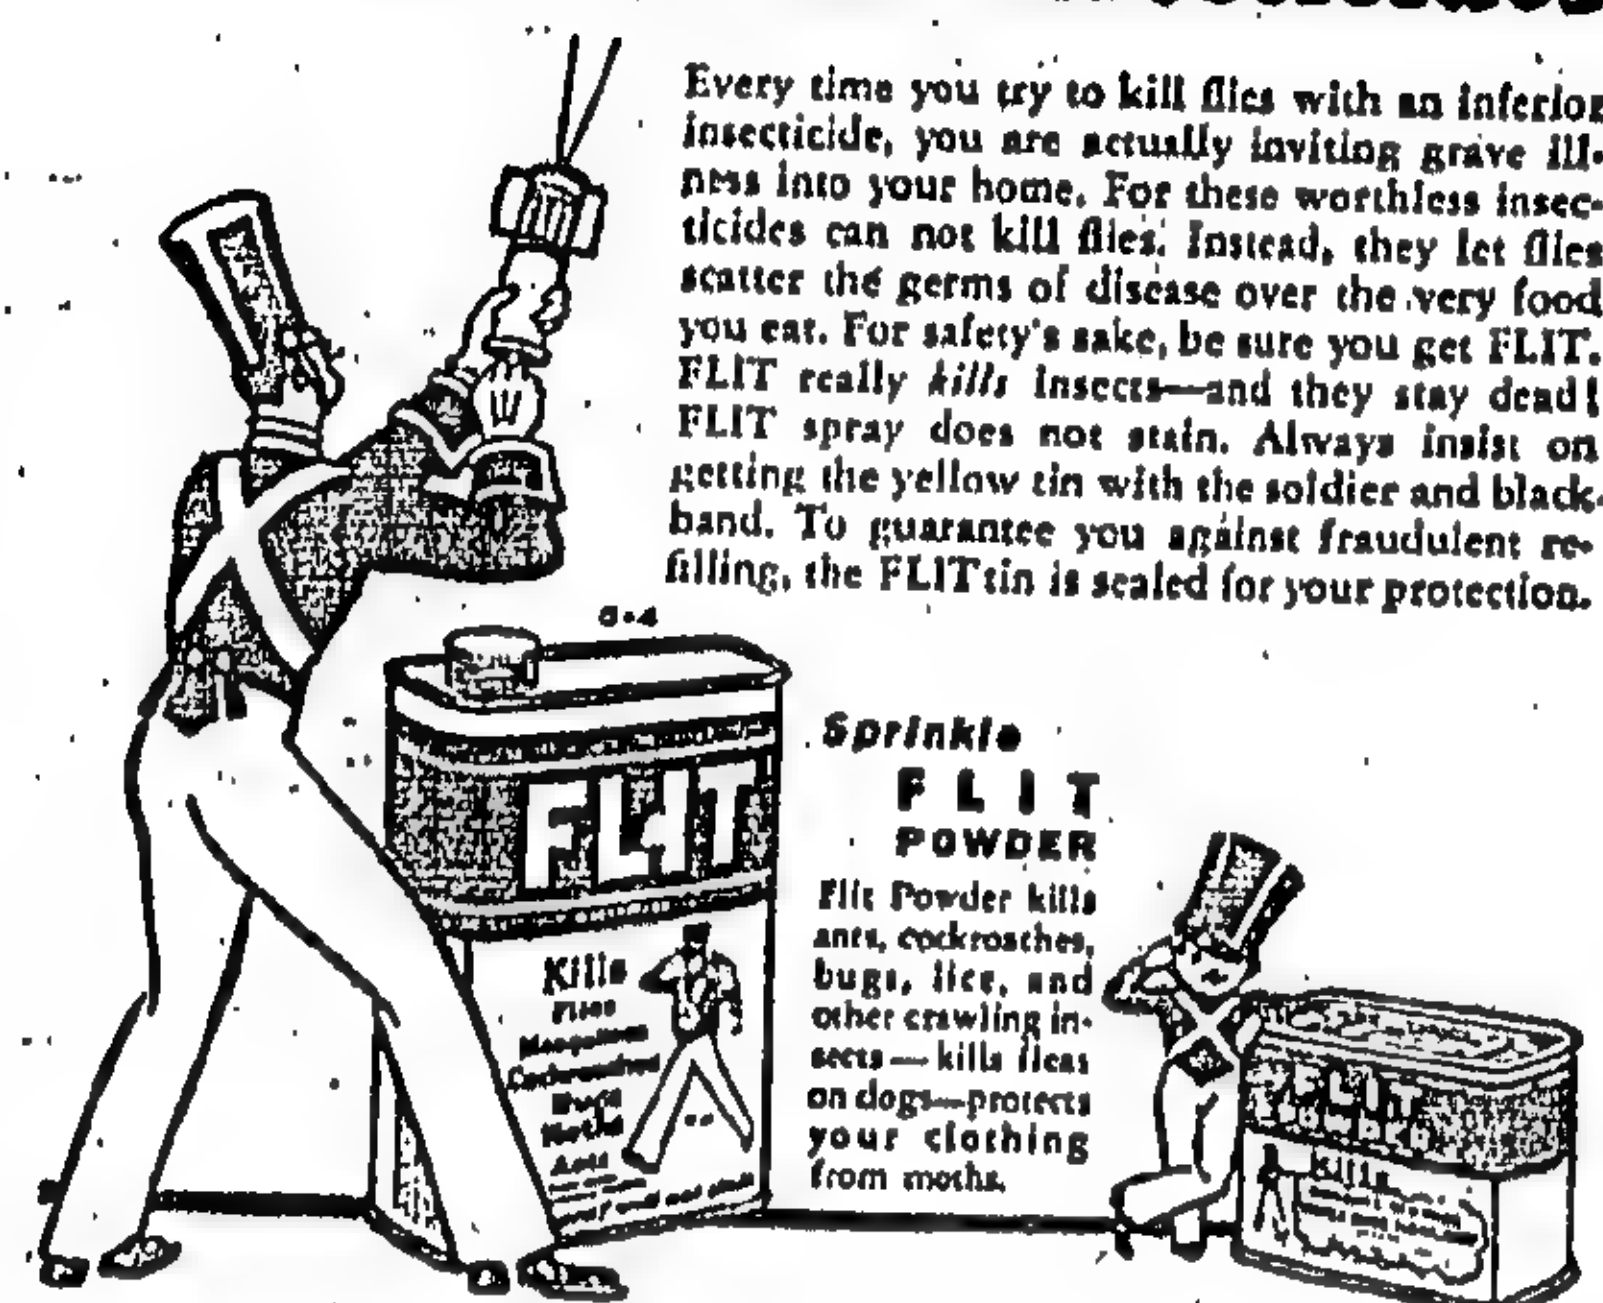

HAIR NEVER CUT
Major Goddard will be adviser and father to these men throughout their four and a half months in England. "No Sikh cuts a hair of his head," he stated. "Their long beards are rolled up to a few inches' length."

Comment Withheld

London, May 10. Official circles in London are withholding comment on Mussolini's announcement that the King of Italy has assumed the title of Emperor of Ethiopia.

The view is taken that any decision concerning recognition or non-recognition of the Italian annexation rests with the League.

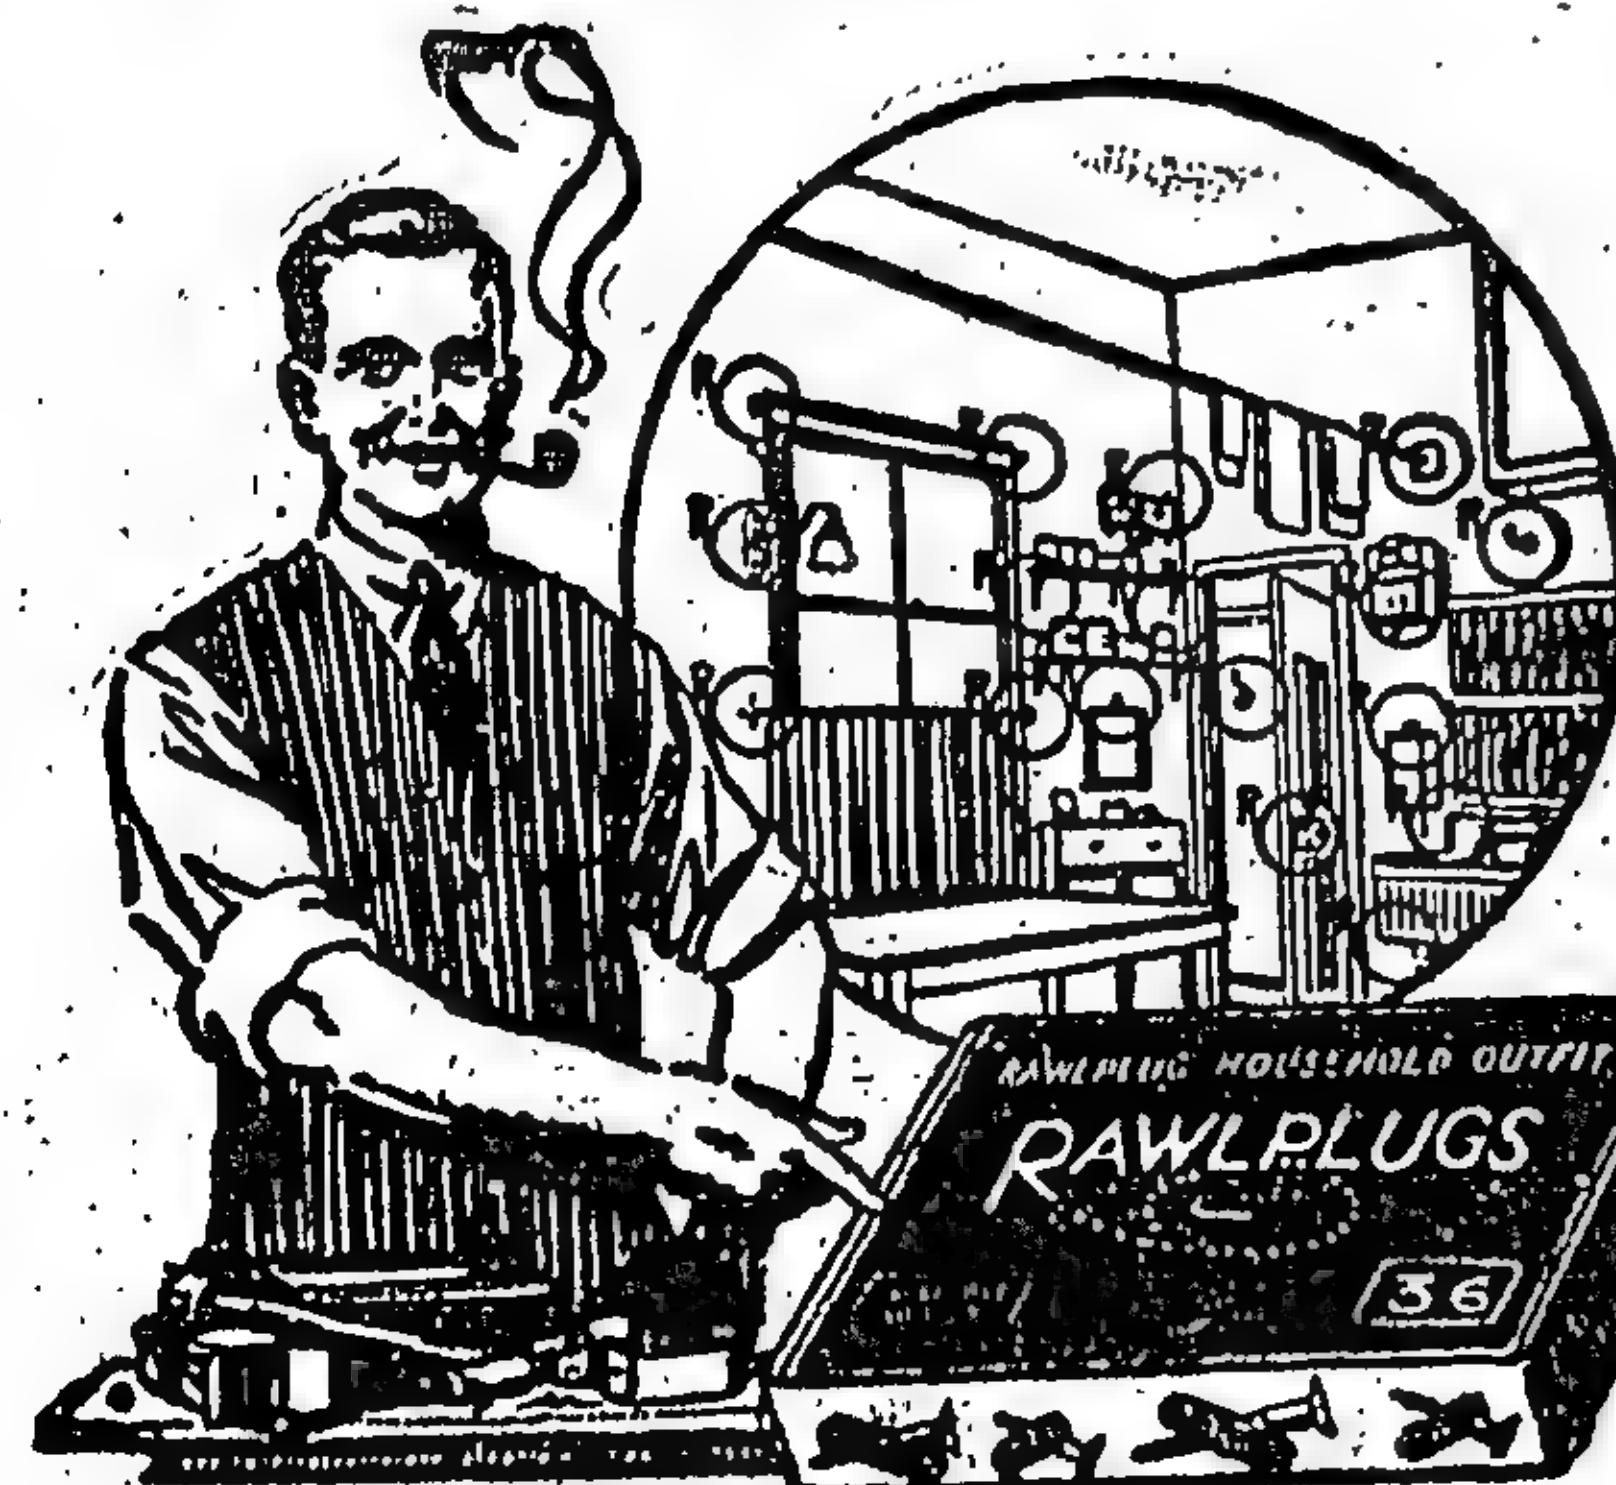

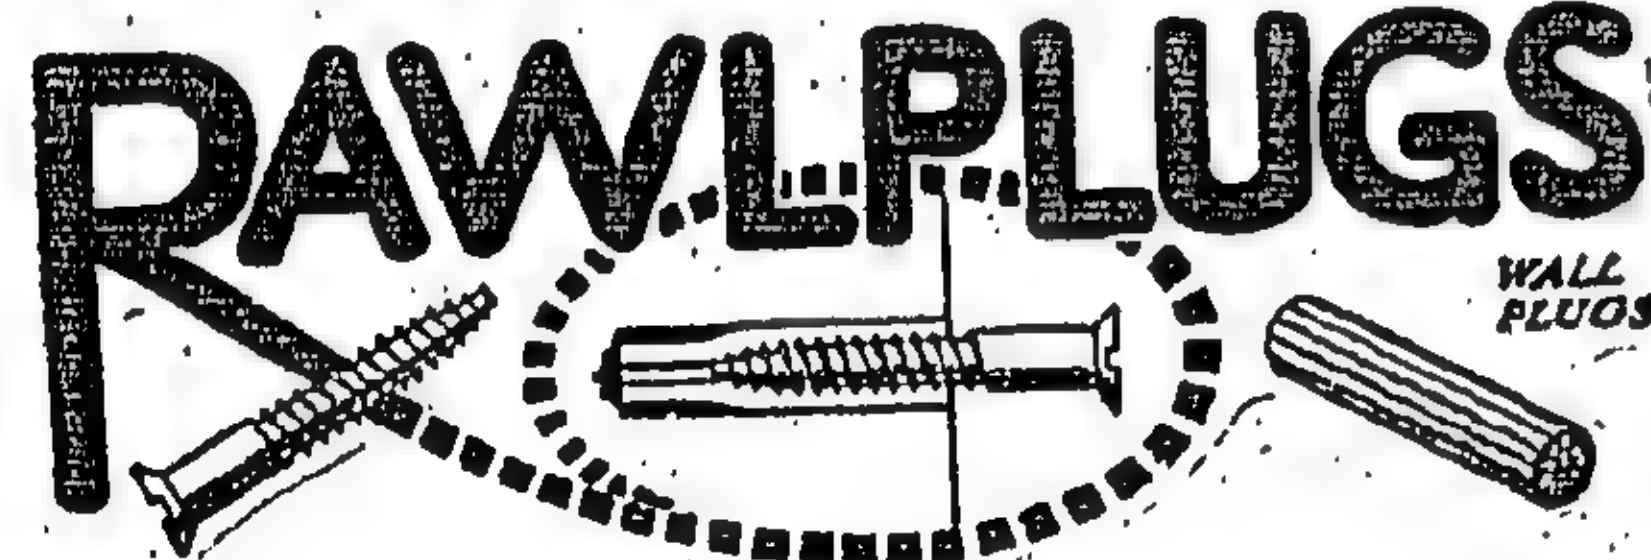

Britain will not take action independently of the League.—Reuter.

King to Visit!

Rome, May 10. Te Deum were sung to-day in the principal churches of the land to celebrate the Italian triumph in Ethiopia.

It is understood that King Victor Emmanuel contemplates visiting Ethiopia in a few months, when peace is reorganised.

It is most unlikely that Signor Benito Mussolini will visit the country, however, as such a trip would necessitate a visit to Egypt. Signor Mussolini follows a rule never to visit foreign countries, and will not depart from it.—Reuter Special.

WIFE MAINTENANCE CASE

HOPES OF EARLY SETTLEMENT

A further adjournment was asked by Mr. W. A. Mackinlay, appearing for the plaintiff, in the case of Luis Cruz, alias Leung Fun-yue, summoned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning for neglect to provide maintenance for his wife and children since January 1, 1933, and had paid her $46 a month until the beginning of this year. Since the issue of the summons, however, defendant had been living again in the same house with the plaintiff and was making payments. Under those circumstances it was thought advisable to adjourn the case for a fortnight.

His Worship, adjourning the case until Tuesday, May 26, said he hoped the parties would effect a settlement before that date.

BRITAIN'S SQUAD FOR OLYMPICS

130 START TO TRAIN

BUT 66 WILL GO

Under the watchful eyes of a special committee about 130 British track and field athletes are preparing for the Olympic Games. They are the candidates listed by the Amateur Athletic Association from whom the final team will be chosen next July, two weeks before the team leaves for Germany. A maximum of three competitors for each of the 22 Olympic track and field events will be sent, and every one of them must be capable of attaining the standard of the sixth competitor in the 1928 Amsterdam Games.

Looking down the list, it is fairly easy to pick out those men who stand best chances of selection, particularly in the more popular events, such as the sprints and the middle-distance races. The representation in such races as the 400 and 800 metres, in which Britain hitherto has scored chief Olympic successes, is particularly strong.

Among the candidates for the 400 metres is W. Roberts, who in a season of victories in 1935, put up a new German record of 47.7 for the quarter-mile. This time was only once beaten last year, by Eddie O'Brien on the Princeton track with 47.3. Another quarter-miler is A. G. K. Brown, of Cambridge University, who is hailed here as a potential world-beater. As long-standing Commonwealth records, one for the 440 yards and one for the half-mile. His best time in 1935 was 48.1 for the quarter.

These two are almost certain for the team, and Brown is also spoken of as a likely entrant for the 800 metres, in which event J. C. Stothard is the outstanding candidate. Stothard's best time in an undefeated 1935 season was 1 minute, 53.3 seconds.

Another half-miler is J. V. Powell, who, despite the fast time of 1 minute, 52 seconds, finished seventh in the 800 metres at Los Angeles in 1932.

SQUAD OF 25 TRAINS
Twenty-five men are training for these two events alone. Likely choices in other chief events are: 100 metres—A. W. Sweeney, English sprinter; 200 metres—J. H. Dwyer, English sprinter; 400 metres—J. H. Dwyer, English sprinter; 800 metres—J. H. Dwyer, English sprinter; 1,600 metres—J. H. Dwyer, English sprinter; 3,200 metres—J. H. Dwyer, English sprinter; 6,400 metres—J. H. The Queen Mary Earns Her First £25

Southampton, May 1. The Queen Mary started to make money for her owners for the very first time to-day. Just a little money, of course; about £25 net in shilling pieces.

And in rather an odd way. But then the relations between the Queen Mary and her owners are rather odd any way.

The Queen Mary is and it isn't a Cunard White Star liner—not yet. She is still in the jealous possession of her Clydebank builders, the firm of John Brown. No visitors of any kind are allowed—unless the John Brown vigilantes approve of them.

So it was a bit, calling to the Cunard White Star folk when the mammoth arrived at Southampton to see shillings and half-crowns rolling up in hundreds, into the pockets of the dock owners—the Southern Railway—when all the time they could have scooped the pool by selling tickets actually to board the liner.

Little pleasure steamers with a couple of hundred shillings on board have been sailing boldly into the Ocean Docks, puffing smoke around the vessel, and then steaming back to get another consignment of holiday visitors.

It was too much for the Cunard. Somebody had a brain wave, and to-day they threw open to public view (at a shilling a time) the liner Berengaria, which is lying on the opposite side of the Ocean Docks.

From the Berengaria's decks you could get a simply splendid grandstand view—high up, you know, not one of these neck-twisting views that you get from water level—of the Queen Mary.

That is as near the Queen Mary (about a hundred yards) as the Cunard White Star can get their paying guests.

On Friday the great liner goes to sea for her trials.

GOVERNOR HONOURED

London, May 10. Sir Murray Anderson, newly appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New South Wales, has been created a K.C.M.G.—Reuter Special.

Countess Barbara Is Worth £9,000,000

£400,000 In Gifts To Her Two Husbands

New York, May 1. COUNTESS HAUGWITZ-REVENTLOW, Barbara Hutton, is worth more than £9,000,000. An income-tax dispute between her attorneys and the Government disclosed this in Washington to-day.

It was stated that she owned £6,400,000 tax exempt securities, £1,800,000 partially exempt securities, and £600,000 in covenant bonds, which are also partially exempt from tax.

Records showed, it was stated, that she gave her first husband, Prince Alexis Mdivani, £200,000, and her present husband, the count, £200,000.

JOY-RIDE IN MR. LO'S CAR

GARAGE APPRENTICE FINED

A Joy-ride in a car belonging to the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo proved an expensive affair for Chung Tam-fuk, 19 years, an apprentice in a garage at Canal Road, Wanchai, who was fined a total of $35, in default, one month and ten days' hard labour, when he appeared before Mr. W. Schofield, at the Central Magistracy this morning, charged with driving private car No. 1255 without the permission of the owner and driving without an appropriate licence.

Sergeant Groves said he saw defendant driving the car in Main Street East, Shaukiwan about 10 p.m. on Saturday. Another man was with defendant. He went after them, and defendant stopped the car in the middle of the street, and the two men got out and ran away. He gave chase and arrested defendant's friend. Defendant was arrested the next morning at the garage. The car had apparently been placed in the garage for repairs, and defendant had taken it out for a joy-ride.

Defendant was fined $25, in default one month's hard labour, on the first charge, and $10, or ten days, on the second charge.

The King Decides

Against Courts In July

GARDEN PARTIES FOR DEBUTANTES INSTEAD

THE KING has decided to hold two afternoon receptions in the gardens of Buckingham Palace on July 21 and July 22, to take the place of the royal Courts.

His decision ends speculation among London debutantes, and young wives who are waiting to be presented on their marriage. They know now that they will wear afternoon gowns, and—as the period of full Court mourning ends on July 20—that they may wear colours.

Thus dressmakers will have opportunities of displaying ingenuity which are denied them in the design of the normal Court gowns.

Each debutante will want an individual style, and, with nearly a thousand to be presented, the variations of fashion should be unusually interesting. The Lord Chamberlain's announcement regarding the receptions states:—

"Ladies who have already applied to make presentations this year will in due course receive a detailed communication from the Lord Chamberlain's Office. Mourning will not be worn at these receptions."

Full arrangements have yet to be announced, but it is understood that the debutantes will pass

DARTMOOR PRISON TO BE ENLARGED

London, May 1. In order that Dartmoor Prison may be enlarged, 600 long term prisoners are to be transferred to Dartmoor from county jails so that they can get to work in the enlargement and reconditioning of the Prison.

Plans for this transfer of such a large number of prisoners have been prepared secretly by the authorities and are now complete. They will journey by train from Waterloo to Plymouth and go from there by road through Tavistock to Dartmoor. None of them have less than nine months' sentence in store for them.

IS A NEW LEAGUE
NECESSARY?

"The League, as we know it, is dying: now let us have another League, not with its legions of committees, but with its battalions and battleships, to police the world and secure international justice." So writes a correspondent, who, anticipating the argument that such a plan is too simple, declares that simplicity and directness are qualities investing the highest purposes of mankind: while complication, compromise and hesitation are qualities that mark the lowest human impulses. The idea he propounds is not, of course, a new one. The creation of some such international force was obviously contemplated by those who drew up the Covenant of the League, in which provision is made for joint military and naval, as well as economic, action against an aggressor. If such a force were to be brought into being, however, there would need to be very definite and specific amendment of the Covenant, whereby the signatories would all agree, without reservation, to join hands immediately an offending nation had been determined to have been guilty of aggression. But is the existing machinery, if properly operated, inadequate to the needs of the present situation? It is to be agreed that those who would compel peace must be strong enough to enforce it. But, in the present instance, is the combined strength of Great Britain, France and Soviet Russia—leaving aside the forces of the smaller nations—inferior to that of Italy? To be frank, it is not the inadequacy of the potential military force at the disposal of the League, but the absence of the will and determination to use it, that has resulted in the present tragic situation. Boiled down, the Italian triumph in Ethiopia is not, in view of the methods used and the opposition offered, a brilliant military achievement; rather it is, thus far, a diplomatic victory. The French and Italian concord, which resulted in the formation of the Stresa front, was a very clever move by Mussolini, for it virtually assured that France would not be over-enthusiastic in measures designed to stop his African adventure. Whilst the French people are proud of their realistic and logical attitudes towards political problems in general, they apparently do not

She Began
where Mae West ends

Last Saturday was an eventful anniversary in the history of the old London Music Hall. On that date, fifty-one years ago, commenced the stage career of Marie Lloyd who began, on May 9, 1885, where Mae West ends in 1936.

In the following article, a well-known Hongkong resident who was a great follower of the old-time Music Hall, tells the story of the career of the Idol of the Halls.

BORN in 1870, Marie Lloyd's first professional engagement was at the Eagle Music Hall in the City Road, London, on May 9, 1885 under the name of Bella Delmore, where she sang "My Soldier Laddie" and "Time is Flying."

She reappeared at the same Hall in the following month, and was then "billed" as Marie Lloyd.

She next appeared at the Falstaff Music Hall in Old Street, which appearance was followed by an engagement at the Sebright Music Hall, Hackney. From there she went to the Star at Bermondsey, where she sang "And the Leaves began to Fall" and "Sure to Fetch Them."

After this, she was engaged at the Bedford Music Hall in Camden Town, whence she migrated to the Middlesex ("the Old Mo") in Drury Lane, where she first made her name with the song "The Boy that I love sits up in the Gallery."

Her success there was such that she obtained an engagement—which lasted for twelve months—at the Oxford Music Hall (one of the three Syndicate Halls—Oxford, London Pavilion and Tivoli). Soon afterwards she was appearing regularly at all of these last mentioned Halls, being billed to "do her turns" there at 9.40, 10.10 and 10.35 p.m. respectively.

In 1891 she took the part of "Princess All Fair" in the Pantomime "Humpty Dumpty," at Drury Lane, wherein Dan Leno, Herbert Campbell and Little Tich also appeared. In the following year she again appeared at Drury Lane as "Little Red Riding Hood" along with Ada Blanche and the three Artists mentioned above.

In 1893 she took the part of "Polly Perkins" in "Robinson Crusoe" at Drury Lane, and was as much admired for her dancing as for her acting and singing.

In 1898 she appeared as "Dick Whittington" in the Pantomime of that title at the Crown Theatre, Peckham, which ran for more than two months. In the following year she took the part of "Princess Heliotrope" in "Cinderella" at the same theatre—her sister Alice appearing as "Cinders"—which pantomime also had a two months' run.

She also appeared in pantomime and variety at all the leading Halls in the United Kingdom, America, Australia and South Africa.

SHE scored a great success in Paris, being accorded a reception greater than that of any of her predecessor Artists. On her return, she brought back a song entitled "The Naughty Contingent." In Berlin she headed the bill, despite the presence of several famous Continental "Stars."

In 1901 she toured Australia, and upon her return to London in November that year, she was uproariously welcomed at the Oxford—her reception being so effusive that she completely broke down.

On her fiftieth birthday she was appearing at the Bedford, Camden Town, and her welcome that night exceeded even her reception at the Oxford in 1901.

AMONG the numerous songs sung by her were:—

"Never let a Chance go by."
"That was Before My Time."
"Then you Wink the Other Eye."
"Oh! Mr. Porter."
"The Naughty Contingent" ("You should go to France").
"Whacky, Whacky, Whack."
"Keep off the Grass."
"Twiggly Voo!"

"There They are, the Two of Them on Their Own."
"Everything in the Garden's Lovely."
"As if She Didn't Know."
"The Wedding Bells were Ringing."
"Maid of London, Ere We Part."
"She'd Never had Her Ticket Punched Before."

"I'd Love to Live in Paris all the Time."
"A Little of What You Fancy does You Good."
"Madame Duval."

"Garn Away What D'yer take Me for."

"The Wrong Girl."

Her success there was such that she obtained an engagement—which lasted for twelve months—at the Oxford Music Hall (one of the three Syndicate Halls—Oxford, London Pavilion and Tivoli). Soon afterwards she was appearing regularly at all of these last mentioned Halls, being billed to "do her turns" there at 9.40, 10.10 and 10.35 p.m. respectively.

HER songs were, generally, the following:—
"When in the Tottenham Court Road, I saw, tucked under the newsboy's arm, the sheet which announced that Marie Lloyd was dead, everything around me became still."
"The street lost its hubbub, and for a space I was alone with a personal sorrow."
"In moments of emotion one is apt to notice the little things, and at once I remarked that, on the poster, the artist's name was prefaced with the word 'Miss.'"
"Death, it seemed, laying his hand upon her who was known over the whole English-speaking world as 'Marie,' must use more ceremony."
"Marie"—pronounced with the broad vowel beloved of the Cockney—was in everybody's mouth that day, in club and barrack-room, in bar-parlour and in modest home. On the high seas 'Marie's dead' would be droned from ship to ship.
"Returning from Kompton a party of bookmakers fell to speaking of the dead artist. One said, with tears in his eyes, 'She had a heart, had Marie!' The size of Waterloo Station, another rejoined.

"Her abounding generosity was a commonplace of the profession. She would go down to Hoxton, where she was born, and make lavish distribution to the street-urchins of boots and shoes which she fitted with her own hands. She had numberless pensioners dependent upon her charity. She earned some two hundred thousand pounds, and gave it all away."
"God rest her," said the bookmaker who had first spoken, and bared his head. That night, at Blackfriars Ring, a bruiser with the marks of many fights declared: "We shan't none of us see the likes o' Marie again. She war a great artist!"

"But it is not my purpose to write now of technical excellence. Rather would I dwell on the fact that she was adored by the lowest classes, by the middle people, and by the swells."

"I hope," she said in a little speech before the curtain at her last performance at the Alhambra, "I hope I may, without bigotry, allude to my past triumphs. Poor soul, it is we who should ask to be delivered from that vice."

"Marie broadened life and showed it, not as a mean affair of refusal and restraint, but as a boon to be justly enjoyed. She redeemed us from virtue too strait-laced, and her great heart cracked too soon."

By
"An Old Stager"

"Come into the Garden, Maud." Somehow or other these songs seemed to take on a totally different character to that usually associated with them—in fact, to put it mildly, to appear somewhat improper! "There," remarked Marie at the close of that portion of the performance, "if you can stand that kind of stuff in your homes, I don't think there's anything much wrong with my little parcel!"

She appeared on more than one occasion on the Films—the last being in "Round the Town Weekly Budget."

She passed away on October 7, 1922, having collapsed on the stage of the Edmonton Empire while singing one of her greatest "hits":—"I'm One of the Ruins that Cromwell Knocked about a Bit." She was buried at Fortune Green Cemetery, Hampstead. During the progress of her funeral procession thither, the density of the crowd was so great that police had to clear the way.

A touching tribute to her skill as an artist and her humanity came from Ellen Terry in the shape of a laurel wreath bearing the inscription:

"In memory of a great artist. She gave lightness of heart to many a heart bowed down," while the public in hundreds showered flowers on her grave.

WRITING in "The Saturday Review" for October 14, 1922, in reference to her death, Mr. James Agate (the celebrated Dramatic Critic) paid, among other tributes to her memory,

HONGKONG CORONATION CELEBRATIONS: WEEK FOR PUBLIC REJOICING

BIG DELEGATION WILL TRAVEL TO LONDON

Local Arrangements To be In Hands of Big Committee:
Jubilee as Precedent

"Telegraph" Special Representative

ALTHOUGH no official arrangements have as yet been made in Hongkong for the local celebration of the Coronation of King Edward the Eighth a year hence, I was informed by a highly placed official this morning that the arrangements will probably follow those made for the Coronation in May, 1912, of King George V.

It is believed that the actual Coronation will take place in Westminster Abbey either on Thursday, May 20 or Thursday, May 27.

Hongkong's celebrations will last a week and will be on an unprecedented scale.

As soon as the actual date is known, the Hongkong Government will appoint a Coronation committee which, like the Silver Jubilee Committee last year, will be fully representative of the entire population of the Colony.

It is most likely that this Committee will take the Silver Jubilee celebrations as a precedent. For instance, it is practically certain that the Chinese community of Hongkong will be invited to hold dragon and lantern processions through the street, as on May 6 last year.

It is interesting to recall that the Hongkong celebrations in connection with the Coronation of King George V in 1911 lasted for three days. For the Coronation of King Edward VIII, Hongkong will probably fall into line with London and extend the celebrations over a period of a week.

WHAT MAY HAPPEN

Among the suggestions that will be brought forward for local celebrations will be:

Plans for erection of Statue of H.M. the King.
Distribution of special Coronation mugs and tea and refreshments to Hongkong children.
Distribution of Coronation medals to local citizens.
Chinese dragon and lantern processions.
Children's sports at the Happy Valley Race Course.
Dinner and reception at Government House.
Firework and illuminations.
Hongkong will be represented officially at the actual Coronation ceremony in London, although who will be chosen has not yet been decided. At the Coronation of King George V in 1911 ten officers and non-commissioned officers of the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps, led by Lt. Col. Chapman, V.C., the Commandant, were chosen to represent Hongkong in London.

It is possible that, if the same procedure is adhered to next year, the Government will see that the representation costs the Colony as little as possible by asking officers of the H.K.V.D.C. and H.K.N.V.R.

who ordinarily are going home on leave to act as representatives.

BIGGER SPLASH?

On the other hand Hongkong may decide to make a much bigger splash of the occasion, as was done, for instance, for the Coronation of King Edward VII. On that occasion the Colony contingent numbered 20 representatives of the Volunteer Defence Corps, detachments of the Police, various Indian Battalions stationed in the Colony and details from other vernacular forces.

It is almost certain that the departure of the China Squadron of the Royal Navy, which usually takes place in April, will be postponed until after the Coronation of His Majesty, in order that the Senior Service may be enabled to participate in the Hongkong celebrations. The Royal Air Force contingent in Hongkong will also be at much greater strength than heretofore and the combined Services Review for the Coronation will be on a magnificent scale.

PRIVATE PARTIES

Quite apart from the official contingents, several private parties will go to London for the Coronation ceremonies. One of these will be a party of Rifleman, members of the Hongkong Rifle Association, who will participate in the Coronation Biscuit meeting in July. A record crowd of Hongkong residents are also certain to make their departure for the Homeland early next year. Many residents who would ordinarily have taken their long service leave this year have postponed their holidays until 1937, in order to be in London for the Coronation.

London hotels and residences already report heavy bookings and in many instances they are completely booked out a year ahead. It is safe to state that the record crowds that witnessed the Silver Jubilee celebrations last year will be easily exceeded in London next year.

The same should apply in Hongkong. During last year's Silver Jubilee celebrations the Kowloon Canton Railway handled over 10,000 passengers on one day from Canton alone. It is computed that river steamers exceeded this number.

An historic photograph taken in Queen's Road, Hongkong, during the Coronation celebrations in May, 1911. In the background is the old Clock Tower, which was at the junction of Queen's Road and Pedder Street.

AN EARTHQUAKE A DAY FOR TEN YEARS

RECORDED IN HONGKONG

During the last ten years there has been an earthquake in Hongkong every day, according to the Annual Reports of the Director of the Royal Observatory.

Seismographical records are a part of the work of the Hongkong weather bureau. During last year more 'quakes were recorded than in any other year during the past decade. One of the 476 recorded shocks—an average of almost ten a week—was the 'quake that completely wrecked Quetta.

September is said to be the month in which most of the world's tremors occur. Sometimes days pass without one being recorded; then a series of shocks complete the cycle.

Looking at the statistics compiled by the local Royal Observatory since January 1, 1925, there seems to be a tendency for the number of 'quakes to increase. In 1925 only 159 were recorded. With one exception the figures for each year have gradually crept up until they reached the record of 475 for last year.

Largest 'Quake
The largest 'quake recorded by the Hongkong observatory was not, as is popularly supposed, either the Tokyo or Quetta disasters, but a submarine 'quake that occurred in the Pacific Ocean in 1930.

No One Knew
A particularly big earthquake shock, which was felt in Hongkong, was recorded by the Observatory last month. The epicentre was in Kwangai, and over 200 people were killed. Little was reported of the disaster, due to the difficulty of obtaining news from the interior. In fact, the Hongkong Royal Observatory had a fairly accurate idea of its whereabouts a fortnight before news agency reports commenced to trickle through. The Seismograph is housed in specially constructed rooms, and is so delicate an instrument that even a person walking in the room where it is housed affects it.

DAY BY DAY NEWS IN BRIEF

HE IS RICH WHO HATH ENOUGH TO BE CHARITABLE; AND IT IS HARD TO BE POOR THAT A NOBLE MIND MAY NOT FIND A WAY TO THIS.—Sir Thomas Browne.

The forthcoming wedding is announced of Mr. John Charles Doyle, police officer, Yaumatei Police Station, and Miss Marion Irene Tyrrell, residing at Arlington Hotel.

The usual fortnightly whist drive and tombola will be held in the Reading Room at Kowloon Docks on Tuesday, May 12, at 8.45 p.m. Admission, fifty cents. Refreshments will be served, and everybody will be made welcome.

On charges of keeping sly brothels at 8, Swatow Lane, and 12, Swatow Lane, respectively, two women, Ho Kwai, and Wong Yuet, were each fined $30, or, in default, three weeks' hard labour, by Mr. Balfour at the Central Police Court this morning. Sub-Inspector T.K. Whelan prosecuted.

One month's hard labour was passed on Chan Chuen, 17, who was charged before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning with stealing a $10 note from a desk drawer at No. 150 Cheungshawan Road. Inspector Ellis prosecuted and stated that when arrested outside the shop, defendant still had the note in his possession.

Li Tak, 24, unemployed, appeared before Mr. W. Schofield, at the Central Magistracy this morning, charged with theft of $3 from Tso Kau, licensed hawk, at Wing Lok Street. Inspector Hourihan said complainant was buying fruit at a stall, when defendant snatched the money from his pocket and ran away. He passed the defendant to a confederate who was not arrested. Mr. Schofield ordered defendant to pay complainant $3 amends or in default serve seven days' hard labour, and also imposed sentence of three months' hard labour. An order for defendant to be sent back to Swatow was also made.

A whist drive is to be held on board H.M.S. Tamar on Thursday evening, commencing 9 o'clock.

The Maritimes Customs has issued a detailed report on the foreign and interport trade of Canton for the year 1935.

H.E. the Governor is to perform the christening ceremony at the launching of the ferry steamer Man Gok at Kowloon Docks to-morrow at 11.30 a.m.

Hongkong rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. to-day totalled 0.11 inch. The total since January 1 is 9.13 inches, against an average of 14.10 inches.

A district watchman was granted an order by Mr. Balfour at the Central Police Court this morning for the confiscation of four tins of prepared opium found in the possession of a Chinese who escaped at Queen's Road Central near Tung Man Street. Sub-Inspector A. T. Sabey prosecuted.

Cheung Kong, 20, was fined $4,000, with the alternative of nine months' hard labour, by Mr. Balfour at the Central Magistracy this morning for being in possession of a large quantity of raw opium. Revenue Officer Gimmitt described the premises as a distributing centre. The defendant was arrested at 18 Chung Ching Street.

Appearing on remand before Mr. E. Hinesworth at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, Liu Sang, 36, admitted stealing a quantity of European style clothing, the property of Tsang Tam, at 89 Ta Ku Ling Road, on April 27. Inspector W. R. Chester Woods said defendant had been living at the same house as complainant, who, coming back from work one night, found that his clothes were missing, and that defendant was gone. On May 6, defendant was recovered, and all the clothing was gone. The total value of the clothes was $22. His Worship imposed a fine of $10, in default, one month's imprisonment.

H.K. GIRL INSPIRES NEW LONDON PLAY

Mr. S. I. Hsiung, author of "Lady Precious Stream," the Chinese play which is nearing its 500th performance at the Little Theatre, has arrived in London with his wife.

He told a reporter that his wife, who was born in Hongkong, is the "Lady Precious Stream" of his imagination, and that she inspired him to dramatise the 1,000-year-old legend.

Even in the stolid Hampstead house where the reporter saw them the flowing black silk robes of Mr. Hsiung and the tight-fitting national costume of his wife seemed to bring something of the atmosphere of a Chinese fairy tale.

Mr. Hsiung's next play is to be even more genuinely Chinese than "Lady Precious Stream"—for the entire cast is to be Chinese. "It is entitled 'The Western Chamber,' and originates from a short story dating from the 8th century," he said. "I shall produce it in Shanghai with Chinese actors, playing in English and Chinese on alternate nights, and then bring the entire cast to London."

SAID TO HAVE GONE BLIND

POSITION OF MR. Y. T. FUNG

It is learned on good authority that Macaroni, the Victor Sassoon of Shanghai chestnut gelding owned by Sir and Mrs. H. H. Priestley, is totally blind in both eyes.

Race-goers may recollect that Macaroni won the All Out Stakes on March 14 last, but that consequent upon the suspension of its jockey, Mr. Y. T. Fung, for bumping and boring, the race was awarded to Mr. Dunbar's Mistake Bay.

It is now said that Macaroni's connections are writing to the Stewards of the Hongkong Jockey Club concerning the loss of Macaroni's eyesight, and it is hoped that the executive will consider the reinstatement of Mr. Fung, whose suspension exists until the end of the first half of the racing season.

Macaroni started his racing career in 1934 and won the Black Rock stakes and the Big Wave Bay Handicap. Last year he annexed the Canton Handicap, the Lead Mine Handicap, and the Tweed Island Bay Handicap, as well as the Nathan Handicap, and was twice running second and once third.

His only success this season, apart from being placed several times during the annual meeting, was in the All Out Stakes, which, as previously indicated, he was made to concede to Mistake Bay.

Macaroni's earnings in stake money amounted to $6,775, the biggest dividend paid out by him being $55.49 for a win in the Big Wave Bay Handicap.

TRIBUTE TO O'REILLY AND GRIMMETT

"O'Reilly and Grimmett bowled wonderfully," said Sam. McCabe when discussing the recent Australian cricket tour of South Africa. "They bowled probably better than ever before."

The great batsman who played such great innings on tour returned to Sydney and reported a wonderful tour with the hospitality splendid to a degree. Everyone enjoyed the trip from start to finish.

Brown and Fingleton were the mainstays of the batting, he said. They were consistent throughout the tour. Fingleton was now a great

GOOD FORM SHOWN BY SIXTEEN COUPLES

Sixteen couples took part yesterday in the first official K.C.C. trials in preparation for the tennis league season which starts on Monday, May 25, and on the whole the form displayed was quite promising.

A possible "A" Division combination played and defeated a possible "B" Division team by seven sets to two, while the "C" Division Possibles beat the "D" Division outfit by 6½ to 3½.

G. Bodiker and E. C. Fincher combined in useful style to win all three sets without being extended, while A. E. P. Guest and F. Grose gave an effective display.

Today's tennis, playing below form, partnered E. P. Fincher and suffered two reverses.

G. Clark, a newcomer, played very well for the "B" team, while Burnett improved enormously after an indifferent start.

Only four ladies turned out for the mixed doubles trials, though for the most part they were in good fettle. Mrs. Hosford played particularly well, while Miss Mackenzie indicated she had made improvement during recent months.

Though of some value, the trials did not offer any definite pointer to league pairings, and next Sunday another trial will be staged, when it is expected that probable league combinations will be nominated and opposed to each other.

Yesterday's results in detail were:

U.S. RUGBY UNION XV

TO PAY VISIT TO AUSTRALIA

IN NEAR FUTURE

(By W. S. Hamilton)

The time is definitely nearer when a combined American team will visit Australia to play Rugby Union.

After some years of slow progress Rugby is now firmly established at the leading Eastern Universities as well as those in California.

The support of such institutions as Harvard, Yale and Princeton, is particularly important, not only because of their leading position in sport, but also because of their social and academic prestige. Where these three lead, others may well follow, particularly as Princeton's was generally acknowledged the champion gridiron team last season of the hundreds of universities in America.

LACK OF UNIFORMITY.

For some time past feelers have been thrown out as to the possibility of a team representing the Californian Universities touring Australia, but, on various grounds, the idea has not been encouraged.

International tours must receive the sanction of the International Board, and a difficulty has been the lack of uniformity in America.

A United States Union was formed, but it was not able to function successfully owing to the practice of unlimited replacement adhered to by the universities of Northern California.

Thus, as in the gridiron game, as many as 30 might play for a side in one match. Advice has now been received in Sydney that Northern California has agreed to conform to the English rules, and the United States Union will begin to function as a controlling and affiliated body.

The way is now open for a tour of Australia, but it is felt that the game should first become more firmly established in America. Mr. T. Stewart, president of the Vancouver All Blacks, who is at present in Sydney, is anxious that the 1939-40 Australian team should visit America on its return from England.

LEYLAND scored 218 not out against Essex.

DISPENSATIONS

The granting to Australia and New Zealand of the touch-kicking dispensation shows that the Rugby Football Union, the controlling body in England, is much more sympathetic towards Dominion views than is generally supposed. The R.F.U. went out of its way to secure this particular concession, and generally has shown itself underserving of the criticism sometimes levelled at it for autocratic control.

England is, in fact, willing to try several innovations, but has been checked by Scotland, Ireland and Wales—the reverse of what might have been expected.

When the touch-kicking dispensation was granted from 1922 to 1933, the R.F.U. was an independent body, of which New South Wales was an affiliated unit. Then the R.F.U. agreed to abide by the laws of the International Board, which included Scotland, Ireland and Wales, and it became a unit of that body. It was compelled, therefore, to withdraw the dispensation.

The matter was again raised by the New South Wales delegates, Messrs. Hill and Holden, at the Imperial Rugby Conference at the end of last year.

Conservative England, it has now been revealed, was actually willing that the touch-kicking amendment should be tried out in the home countries for two years. Scotland, Ireland, Wales and South Africa objected.

Notwithstanding this rebuff, England then sought dispensation from Australia and New Zealand. Still the others would not budge to the point of giving official sanction, but intimated that the decision could rest with the R.F.U., and the other unions would formally acknowledge receipt without actually giving sanction.

The R.F.U. advised New South Wales at the end of last week of its favourable decision, giving further proof of its sympathy.

The attitude of England may be gauged from the fact that the R.F.U. was willing to adopt the New Zealand suggestion of amended scoring, providing for two points for a goal from a mark and three points for a field goal. Again Scotland, Ireland and Wales objected, but the report of Messrs. Holden and Hill shows that the matter will not rest there, and the scoring system will be reviewed following expression of opinions of clubs and players.

Leader of the "radicals" was Mr. James Baxter, manager of the 1930 British tourists, who, it was thought, would have been the greatest stickler for tradition.

R. E. S. WYATT took five wickets for 44 runs.

Splendid Form

CLUB FINISH STRONGLY

Their last two league football matches gave the Club two points, and to Alec Pearce a laurel crown for the best individual performance of the week-end.

Football has died hard again this season, but it could have been given no more attractive funeral than yesterday's encounter between Club and East Lancashires. The cooler temperature appeared to make all the difference, and the teams, despite the fact that both were playing their 26th league match of the season, served up a fine brand of football.

Alec Pearce was the hero of the game, capping a masterly display of forward line leadership by scoring three goals in succession, thereby making a big contribution to the Club's 4-1 victory.

In all departments Club were superior, the soldiers making a disappointing start, then falling away again after a half-hearted recovery.

AN INSPIRATION

Lawton and Harmsworth stood between the Club and more goals, the result was decisive enough. It was an inspiration to put Pearce at centre-forward. At times he played well-nigh model football, initiating raid upon raid, and continually threatening the East Lancs' goal with his powerful long shots which were right on the target and demanded Harmsworth's closest attention.

Nichols, Hynes and Pearce were the pick of the Club team, though E. Strange, restored to inside left, was a source of worry to Swain and Steele.

Lawton alone played up to true form for the soldiers, while Smith was the one and only forward. Harmsworth was excellent in goal.

Hynes put the Club ahead in the first minute when a half shot just tricked past the upright. East Lancs, stung to action, penetrated the Club defence shortly afterwards and Smith gave Sandford a perfect pass.

The centre-forward hit the upright with his shot, but from the rebound Hynes put in his own goal trying to clear while on the ground.

Club, however, quickly assumed ascendancy and Pearce put them two goals ahead before the interval. They continued to dominate after half time and deserved to score several times. Pearce completed his hat-trick and the scoring with the prettiest goal of the match when he got in an 18 yards drive from an angle to beat Harmsworth all the way.

Rolla Wins In Re-Sail For Tai Yat Cup

The Royal Hongkong Yacht Club's Tai Yat Cup Race for the first and second boats of all classes in the series was re-sailed on Saturday afternoon over a course from Tathong Rock, covering a distance of 12½ miles, and resulted in a win for Rolla (Colonel Kirk), with Elina (Mrs. D. W. Pearce) second, Heron (Lieut. Moore R.N.) was third.

Matched against the Artillery, the holders of the title of the Macao "A" League, South China played a tactical game throughout. The players displayed their nimbleness and had a fine control over the ball. The soldiers battled vigorously but often spoilt opportunities by their lack of direction.

Only a minute from kick-off, the visiting forwards were beyond the opposing half-back line and a splendid long shot by Ng Po-kui opened the scoring. A brilliant consolidating defence, the soldiers were quick to double-back until fifteen minutes

FUSILIERS STILL HAVE A CHANCE

OF RUNNERS-UP HONOURS IN SECOND DIVISION

Thanks to a remarkable 11-1 victory against the Club yesterday, Royal Welch Fusiliers have a chance of finishing runners-up in the second division. They have to play East Lancashires in the final match of the season. At present East Lancs lead by two points, but should the Fusiliers beat them on Wednesday, they will displace East Lancashires from second place on goal average.

TWO WINS FOR SOUTH CHINA "B"

AGAINST MACAO CLUBS

KEEN FOOTBALL

(By Our Own Correspondent)

Macao, May 10.

The Candrome enclosure in Macao was the scene of lively football encounters over the week-end when the South China "B" team from Hongkong made its appearance and scored successes yesterday and to-day against the Argonauts and the Artillery Clubs.

In the first match the visitors were always more impressive than the opposition who were weakened by the absence of three of their foremost players. South China "B" asserted its superiority early on when following a corner, Yeung Poon-hon, centre forward, managed to secure the first goal three minutes after the kick-off.

Five minutes later quick passing enabled South China to push home the attack as Lai Shu-wing, inside right, added the second goal. They continued in a leisurely fashion subduing Rosario, the Argonauts goalie, in a heavy bombardment, but putting themselves no further ahead before the interval.

A strong drive five minutes after resumption found South China with the third goal to their credit as Lai Shu-wing drove the ball home from a short pass. Despite being three goals down, the Argonauts gave glimpses of their normal form and Chi Shu-wing in the visitors' goal, had many an anxious moment. As play proceeded they were rewarded when a fine shot by E. Jesus provided the Argonauts with their lone goal.

Chung Fat-lim was particularly prominent at back and stemmed many vigorous drives. Lai Shu-wing was quick to grasp every opportunity and only a minute before the final whistle, gave South China "B" the decisive victory of 4 goals to 1 by driving the ball into the net.

University of California trackmen took a 31-38 shellacking from University of Southern California at Berkeley, but despite the lopsided score, there were tough contests. For instance, here's the last hurdle of the 120-yard high hurdle event. Left to right are Tom Moore (Cal.), Roy Staley (U.S.C.), and Phil Cope (U.S.C.), each of whom has within the last year been clocked in 14.2 seconds, equaling the world mark. They were bunched at this hurdle, but Moore lost with the hurdle seen falling and Cope took first, Staley second. Their time was 14.3—just a tenth second slower than world-record time.

Japan's Swimming Supremacy To Be Challenged

Medica And Kiefer Hope To Turn Tables At World Olympics

Chicago, May 10. Japan's Olympic Swimming champions will be the victims of a furious American comeback in the Berlin games this summer, four outstanding candidates for the U. S. team vowed here.

Jack Medica, Adolph Kiefer, Peter Fick, and Johnny Higgins, National A. A. U. champions and world masters of their respective divisions, are convinced Japan's stunning sweep at Los Angeles in 1932 was all a bad dream. They're just as certain it won't happen again.

Sounded out on America's chance of taking away the only world's sports championship Japan ever has held, each predicted a victory for the United States in his division. But only Fick, stocky New York Athletic Club free style sprint champion, admitted he could beat any Japanese contestant.

"I think I can take the 100 metres free style event at Berlin," Fick said. "In Japan last summer, I beat M. Yusa, the best they have at that distance. No one yet has bettered my short course record of 55.4 seconds, nor my long course mark of 57.2 seconds."

Fick is in perfect condition for the Olympic trials. He is a powerfully built man with perfect stroking rhythm. In retaining his 100-yard free style crown last week he tied Johnny Weissmuller's world record of 51 seconds. He has been swimming only three years.

MEDICA'S HOPE

Medica, slope-shouldered powerhouse from Seattle, indicated America would take the 400-metre race.

"I hope to be chosen to represent our team in the 400-metres," he said. "That's my best race and I've defeated Japan's Negami twice. Three free style candidates will be picked, however, and whichever has the best time trials will swim in his best event. We may be weak at 1,500 metres, but the 400 should be ours."

Although under peak form after weeks of hard competition, Medica won three national championships early in April. He successfully defended his 220-yard and 500-yard crowns and added the 1,500-metre title, establishing himself again as the nation's greatest free-style swimmer.

Kiefer, 17-year-old schoolboy giant, refused to predict he'd win an Olympic backstroke title, although practically every swimming official in the country has said so.

"I hope I get by the trials O. K.," Adolph said seriously. "Taylor Drysdale, Al Vande Wagon and Dan Zehr will be hard to beat. Our delegation should win the backstroke, though."

Kiefer has been called the greatest backstroke the world has known. He bettered existing marks for 100 and 150 yards as he defended his national 150-yard crown. The U. S. should finish 1-2-3.

Johnny Higgins, 10-year-old breast stroke champion, said either he or Jack Kasey, University of Michigan, or Ray Kaye, Detroit, will win the Olympic breast stroke championships. Higgins broke the Olympic 200-metre record in Japan, but lost to Kloeke in another race.

If their predictions are fulfilled, the American team will win every event but the 800-metre relay and 1,500 free style.—United Press.

UNITED STATES CHOOSES DATES FOR OLYMPIC TRY-OUTS

New York, May 10. The American Olympic Committee, although embarrassed by lack of funds, is utilizing every opportunity for developing a strong United States team to send to the 1936 Olympics at Berlin.

The best available coaches have been retained for the various major athletic branches and the selection of team members is being made only through rigorous, competitive, tests. All this is being done in the face of a powerful, concerted movement against American participation at Berlin because of alleged racial prejudice in the Reich.

The committee recently "purged" itself of one of the strongest proponents of non-participation. He was Charles L. Ornstein, who was expelled from the committee on the ground that he was absent from two meetings without cause, a violation of the by-laws. Ornstein, however, charged that he was ousted because of his anti-Nazi attitude.

Present plans are to select a total of 330 men and 46 women to represent the United States. The biggest delegation, 68, will compete in track and field events.

American participants will wear double-breasted blue serge coats, white flannel trousers, black and white shoes and straw hats as the uniform for the opening parade in the Berlin stadium. Tryouts and finals have been held in a few of the minor events and teams selected, but the major competitions are yet to come.

The following tryout calendar was approved by the committee:

CYCLIST TO TRY OLYMPIC TORCH BEARER'S PACE

Berlin. Laslo Adorjan, a Hungarian bicycle enthusiast, will follow the 2,200-mile Olympic Torch Relay from Greece to Germany, according to present plans. The 11-day race will have 3,000 runners relaying the sacred fire from ancient Olympia to Berlin for the Olympic games.

The relay starts at midnight on July 21. It will go through Greece, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Germany, to Berlin. The last torch-bearer will arrive on Aug. 1, just in time to light the enormous Olympic Torch at the Stadium.

The Torch, according to Olympic rules, must remain ablaze for the duration of the games.

RETURN TO BRIGHTER CRICKET

Sussex Resolution: Prospects of Counties: Gloucester Need

(By RONALD T. SYMOND)

THE name of Sussex used to be synonymous with jolly cricket, full of the warm south. Of recent years ambitions for the team to adopt a certain grimness of concentration on results, with the consequent loss of a measure of their natural attractiveness.

This summer a "return to nature" is to be the avowed policy of the club. Brighter cricket, without undue concern about the championship, is to be the season's motto. In June, Worthing is to enjoy a Cricket Week for the first time in the history of the town.

Unfortunately, A. Melville will not be able to play regularly, and the loss of his brilliant all-round capabilities will be a handicap, particularly as he plays the brightest of bright cricket. He hopes to take part in several matches, but the captaincy will now pass into the capable hands of A. J. Holmes.

TEST ASPIRANTS

All last season's professionals are again available, so that Sussex will again have a nicely balanced side with plenty of variety in attack. James Langridge and J. H. Parks, two of the best all-rounders in the country, will doubtless be in the running for Test honours, and possibly for the tour to Australia as well.

Glamorgan started last season with a flourish of trumpets by defeating Sussex and by snatching first-innings points from the formidable Yorkshire team; but the promise of this brilliant gambit was not fully realised. Apart from the fine performance of Smart and M. J. Turnbull, the batting did not quite come up to expectations. But the team has great inherent strength which justifies an optimistic outlook for the coming season, particularly if the batsmen "let themselves go" with more confidence and less anxiety.

M. J. Turnbull will again lead the side with his accustomed competence, and it is hoped that J. C. Clay, who bowled with such remarkable success last year, will be able to play in a good number of matches. Permanent engagements on the staff have been given to Davies (Aubrey), a very promising all-rounder, and to Davies (Haydn), a wicket-keeper with batting possibilities.

PACE BOWLER NEEDED

It is hard to conceive of a Gloucestershire team taking the field without "Charlie" Parker, whose magnificent bowling has for so long been a mainstay of attack. But the veteran, who has been appointed a first-class umpire, has at last retired, so that an additional responsibility will now lie on the broad shoulders of Goddard. The latter was in splendid form last year, and Sinfild also bowled very usefully; but the team urgently need a bowler of pace besides Hammond and Barnett. At present, there are no signs of any such addition, but the county would be wise to prosecute a thorough search.

D. C. A. Page will continue his conscientious and enthusiastic leadership, ripened by his experience of last year, and it is hoped that B. H. Lyon, D. N. Moore, and B. O. Allen will be able to play frequently.

Batting gives no cause for anxiety, Hammond has recovered his old form, and Sinfild has improved his aggressive powers without losing in reliability, while an improvement in effectiveness may confidently be expected from both Barnett and Dacre. Goddard takes a well-deserved benefit in the Motts match at Gloucester beginning on August 29.

Somerset will need to find an opening batsman to replace Lee (J. W.), who has accepted a post at Mill Hill School, and will not be available before August. Possibly Wimblet, who must so startling a debut in county cricket last season, may be given a trial in his capacity. In August it is probable that both N. S. Mitchell-Innes, the new Oxford captain, and J. H. Cameron, the Cambridge all-rounder, will be available, but until that time the team will have to rely upon the old guard, with mighty Wellard as outstanding player with both bat and ball.

later a speedy raid into their goal area resulted in an unfortunate penalty which Ng Po-ku converted.

Resuming play, the Artillery made several attempts to score, and after fifteen minutes of hard play A. Santos, centre-forward, obtained a real goal for the hosts. A minute later, excitement was tense when the Artillery nearly scored again. However, the visitors executed some wonderful dribbles and more than once had the ball well into the Artillery's danger zone, the ball occasionally skimming over the bar. The visitors must have bettered the score of 2 goals to 1 in their favour but for their very evident nervousness, especially during the second half.

Vanquished By Use Of Poison Gas

HAILE SELASSIE'S
EXPLANATION

ARMIES MEET

Jerusalem, May 10.
The war the Italians waged in Ethiopia was ended by their use of poison gas, against which it was obviously impossible for his troops to fight, declared Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, in his first statement since the flight from Addis Ababa—Reuter.

ARMIES CONTACT

Djibouti, May 10.
The northern and southern Italian armies, the one led by Marshal Pietro Badoglio, newly proclaimed Viceroy of Ethiopia, the other by General Rodolfo Graziani, have met at last.
They made a contact at Dire Dawa.
The Italian troops occupied the principal points of the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railway, and consequently the French Senegalese troops, who had been sent to guard the line, are preparing to return to Djibouti.
Most of the Italian army's supplies will now be transported over this railroad line—Reuter.

SHIP CAPTAIN'S CLAIM

ALLEGES WRONGFUL
DISMISSAL

An action, claiming $612.50 as salary, was brought before Mr.
Justice J. J. Hayden at the Summary Court this morning by Michael Mitrofanovich Altanassieff, master mariner, against the Hang On Steamship Company and Fong Yichai, the managing partner thereof.

Mr. D. McCallum appeared for the plaintiff, but the defendants were not legally represented. The second defendant, who said he represented both himself and the company, denied that he was the managing partner.
Mr. McCallum said the plaintiff was engaged by the defendant company to manage its business in the matter of getting freight, crew and steamers. The parties entered into a contract on December 30 last whereby the plaintiff was to receive $175 a month if there were no steamer in port and $250 if there was one.
In the month of January, the plaintiff was paid $175 because there was no steamer, but in the middle of February a vessel arrived and from then the plaintiff's salary was increased to $250, according to the agreement. At this time, however, the plaintiff was told that his services were no longer required, and he therefore brought the claim which was made up of $252.50 as balance of his salary for February and $350 as his salary for March, in lieu of notice.

REORGANISATION PLAN
As far as the defendant was concerned, Mr. McCallum continued, he held himself out as the sole proprietor, the financier and manager of the company.

Giving evidence, the plaintiff said when the steamer Yue Wan On arrived in Hongkong on February 16, he was told by the second defendant that he could not send the vessel away because he had trouble with Messrs.
Wallen and Co. and could not obtain coal for it. Witness replied that in that case it was of no use to keep the office open, whereupon the second defendant said he would reorganise the company and asked him to wait two or three days for his salary. Subsequently he received a letter terminating his services. No reason was given for such a step.
The case was adjourned until Wednesday.

Lakehurst, N. J., May 10.
The ground crew pumped 1,000,000 cubic feet of hydrogen into the zepppelin, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, to-day, and loaded the big ship with 6,666 gallons of fuel preparatory to the return voyage across the Atlantic.

The dirigible leaves between sunset and midnight on Monday.
Over 100,000 visitors thronged Lakehurst, coming in automobiles and buses and special trains, Admiral Stanley, famous American naval authority, and many other distinguished naval figures.

Captain Leimann, and Captain Eckener flew to New York to-day where they were the guests of honour at a testimonial dinner and are going to Washington to see President Roosevelt Monday—United Press.

Mr. Balfour, at the Central Police Court this morning, announced that he is going to increase the fine for offenders who damage growing trees.
Wong Chok, 34, was fined $10, or, in default, three weeks' imprisonment, and Yu Li-chai, 34, co-defendant, was fined $5 for damaging trees on the hillside at Kennedy Road. The latter defendant stated he gathered the leaves for medicinal purposes, as he had an itch.
His Worship agreed that might be so.

COSTLY LEAGUE PENALTIES

FIGURES INDICATE EFFECTS

VANISHING

Geneva, May 10.
The results of sanctions against Italy are shown in a report issued by the League of Nations Secretariat, in which returns from 43 countries applying these penalties show that their trade with Italy in February, 1936, was less than half that of the same month of the year previous.

The figures for March, 1936, are not yet complete. Up to now nineteen countries show that their exports to Italy have dropped from $10,000,000 (U.S. currency) in March,
1935, to $5,500,000 in March, 1936.

Their imports, at the same time, dropped from $7,000,000 to $2,000,000.
British imports for March, 1936, totalled $8,800, compared with $2, 000,000 in March of 1935. Exports dropped from $2,600,000 in March, 1935, to $267,000 in March of this year—Reuter Special.

HONGKONG TRIP FOR EVIDENCE

A WOMAN'S claim for damages against the Australian Oriental Line, Ltd., has been postponed to allow evidence to be taken on commission in China as to whether the doctrine of "common employment" rules in Hongkong.

Annie Olivia Henderson, who was a musician on the Taiping, alleges that she was returning to the ship, while it was anchored in Hongkong Harbour in 1933, and that while attempting to board the gangway, she fell into the water.

As a result of the immersion, she claims that she suffered great pain of body and mind, and had been and was still unable to attend to her business and profession of a musician.

The Australian Oriental Line, Ltd., deny all Miss Henderson's allegations, and, as an additional plea, set out that the doctrine of "common employment" in Hongkong bars Miss Henderson from proceeding.

Briefly, the doctrine of "common employment" sets out that an employer is not liable for the negligent act of an employee resulting in an injury to a fellow-employee.

Miss Henderson, who does not admit that the doctrine of common employment is in force in Hongkong, also denies that the doctrine applies in her case.

FIGHTING CANCER

SUCCESSFUL CURE
OF ANIMALS

New York, May 10.
Several types of malignant cancer growth in animals can be destroyed by injections of a typhoid bacillus filtrate, Dr. Mendel Jacob of Beth-El Hospital reported recently in the American Journal of Cancer.

Although this method of curing cancer is still in the experimental stage, it is reported that it had been used on one hopeless case of human cancer when the patient was moribund. An autopsy revealed that the tumour had been virtually destroyed.

Dr. Jacob emphasized, however, that much further research must be done before it will be known whether the method can be used beneficially in the treatment of human cancer.

The report's conclusions were based on Dr. Jacob's experiments with 120 animals and three types of tumour, each chosen for its high growth energy and degree of malignancy.
Seventy animals were treated with the filtrate. Fifty were left untreated for purposes of control.

All the untreated animals died of cancer in about three weeks, Dr.
Jacob reported. In the 70 injected with typhoid filtrate, the tumours began breaking up within a few hours.
Eventually all traces of cancer disappeared. In 90 per cent. of the cases only one treatment—one local and one general injection—was necessary, the report said.

To be effective an injection first must be made in the tumour itself, followed by a general injection through the vein of the abdominal wall about a day later. The local injection must precede the general, the report said, and neither has been found effective without the other—United Press.

One case of Measles was reported to the local Health authorities on Saturday.

Girl Claims Woman Beat Her Daily

TELLS STORY IN MAGISTRACY

A little girl told a pathetic story in the witness box at the Central Magistracy this morning when Mr.
Balfour heard evidence in the remand case in which Kong Yeung, widow, was charged with keeping an unregistered mul-tai at 10, Wing Li Street, and with ill-treating the girl.
Mo.

The girl, Mak Lin, 14, related to the Court that she lived with the defendant whom she addressed as "Yee Mo."

"My mother owed her money and I was given to defendant as security," she said. "I regard myself as a mul-tai. I went to her place when I was four years old. She asked me to pick up things and sell them. I received no money from her. She calls me Ah Lin. A few days ago
I reported to Central Police Station that I was a mul-tai and that the defendant had assaulted me. Although it is my desire to return to my mother, I am unable to do so."

Defendant put several questions to the girl who admitted that she addressed defendant's son as "brother."

Defendant: She was presented to me as a daughter by her mother, who noticed that I had only two sons.
Her mother had tried to give her away previously. The girl had never prepared a meal for me or washed clothes.

Witness: Sometimes I prepared tea,
but I never washed clothes.

Defendant claimed that the girl had never swept the floor or been sent out to buy things.

BEATEN EVERY DAY

Witness (crying): If I could not make enough profit out of selling vegetables, I was beaten. Everyday she beat me with a cane.

Defendant: She was arrested and brought to police station last year for lighting in the street. She also broke her aunt's jade bangle.
Li Nul, mother of the girl, of 52, Bridges Street, testified she had a family of three daughters, and Mak Lin was the fourth. Mak Lin was given to the defendant as a daughter in 1926. Witness received $50
"finger and vinegar" money.

Witness received the money she owed defendant when Mak Lin went to defendant. Last year, witness's daughter visited her once. Witness regarded Mak Lin as an adopted daughter, but she would like her to come back, as the girl had been beaten.

The hearing was adjourned until to-morrow morning. In the meantime, a deed of presentation is to be translated.

Inspector H. W. Fraser, Mui Tsai Inspector, is conducting the prosecution.

Forged Ten- Cent Notes

MAN CAUGHT WITH THOUSAND

Appearing before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, Ip Wan, 29, and Lam Pui, 36, were charged with the possession of 1,000 forged ten-cent banknotes of the Kwangtung Provincial Bank at the Kowloon Canton Railway Station on May 9.

Det-Sergt. A. Kinnear said first defendant had been searched at the station by a Customs Officer, and the notes, in bundles of 100, were found in the false bottom of a small wooden box. Defendant had a ticket to Shanghai but no genuine money, and he declared that he was employed by second defendant, who was later arrested and charged. However, the police had no case against him, and asked for his discharge, which was granted.

His Worship remarked that he regarded the case as very serious, and if the notes had been distributed, they would have caused no end of hardship to the people in the country. He considered that it was up to the authorities in the Colony to stop it. He sentenced first defendant to six months' hard labour.

POSED AS POLICE OFFICER

WANTED TO SEARCH
SMALL BOY

For impersonating a police officer, Fung Loi, 20, was fined $200, or two months' imprisonment, by Mr. Mac-fadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

Detective-Sergeant Goodwin said defendant stopped a small boy in Tai Nam Street, Shamshuipo, yesterday morning outside a pawnshop and demanded to search the boy, who had just pawned some clothing for his mother for 50 cents. The boy became frightened and ran away. Defendant was alleged to have followed him. The mother then came on the scene and wanted to know why defendant was chasing her son. He replied that he was a policeman. An Indian constable, whose attention had been drawn by the commotion, asked for defendant's identification card but he was unable to produce it.
Sergeant Goodwin said defendant had two previous convictions.
